Embury Clings to Winning Streak As '49 Season Opens

Embury Methodist, Holy Name, and Order of DeMolay won their opening games in the Birmingham YMCA Church League Basketball games played last week at Barnum Junior High School.

Embury Methodist preserved its record of no defeats going into their third season of play with a 43-22 win over a fast and coming St. James Episcopal quintet. Except for a defeat by Lansing Methodist last year in the finals of the State 'Y' Church League tournament, Embury has not been defeated in three years of play. Roge Reynolds and Harry Sugden shared scoring honors by racking up 27 points between them which offset by five the total scored by the red jerseys of St. James church.

Holy Name opened their season with a fast breaking quintet to lead First Baptist Church all the way, and coasted to a 38-25 win. Jim Kothe and Keith Ege scored 18 and 13 points respectively for Holy Name and kept the Baptist quintet at bay. Dave Knowlton was the defensive star for Baptists while Bud Brown and Paul Jagger dropped in 13 points to pace the blue scoring.

Order of DeMolay marked themselves as "one of the teams to beat" with a 30-25 win over First Presbyterian Church scored on baskets by George Kimball, George Ehlert, Ed Smith, Jim Hooper, Bob Borkman and Ronnie Israel. Coming on the floor in their natty uniforms of blue and gold, the Masonic boys, led by Bob Borkman, took command of the situation and gradually pulled away from an undermanned Presbyterian quintet that tired by the fourth quarter.

A triple feature program of movies was shown at the regular meeting of the Walnut Lake PTA, Monday evening. "Priceless Cargo", a film on safety in school transportation followed the regular business meeting. In keeping with National Health week the second film was entitled "Be Your Age". The theme was, "You can't fool your heart". "Magic in the Air", concluded the program. This film explained television so that the average person could understand some of the principles behind this new accomplishment.

Refreshments were served by the kindergarten mothers.

Guest Speaker

Dr. W. Whitehouse

Dr. W. W. Whitehouse, president of Albion College, will address members of the Birmingham High-Twelve Club, their wives and their friends, on Monday, Jan. 17 at 6:45 in the Community House.

Dr. Whitehouse, formerly dean of the school of literature at Wayne University until 1946 when he was elected to the presidency at Albion, will speak on "America, an Inventory and an Out-Look." He will deal with some of the fundamental moral, social and political issues of the time.

Special attention is called to the change in the hour of meeting. Because of the nature of the program and for the convenience of members and guests, dinner will be served at 6:45 rather than at the usual hour of 6:30.

Earn Certificates

Several Vaughan students have received certificates of merit from the Curtis Publishing company for their work in the recent selling campaign conducted through the school here. Among those who received certificates are Joan Wood, captain of the girls' team; Howard Rogers, boys' captain, Sheila Flannery, Dorothy Duffield, Barbara Bee, Jim Little and Dick Hatt.

Wild Scoring Spree By 'Y' Boys Brings Them 85-3 Victory

Birmingham YMCA Intermediate Boys team profited by a typographical error on the part of a clerk which had the Hannan 'Y' team away engaging in a swimming meet instead of being host in a basketball game with Birmingham. The result was that the local quintet met the Hannan second team and walked off the floor with an 85-3 win and a scoring record for their league. The 15 year old boys were guided by Walt Allison and used three basic hand-off plays in running up a total of 37 baskets and one foul shot. The lone Hannan points were made by Jim Langlonis who was the outstanding player for Hannan 'Y'.

Gordon Mutch, Kent Smith and Thompson Tjaarda chalked up a total of 41 points between them. Bud Thornton, Bob Mansfield, Merrill, Schlaak, Bob Karch, Don Dickinson and Russell Nordman netted the remainder of points. It appeared as if the local boys could not miss and the opposition could not hit. Control of rebounds from the blackboard constantly fell into the hands of the Birmingham players who consistently dominated the play throughout the game.

Last year, a majority of all Americans killed in automobile accidents met death during the hours of darkness.

SCOUT NEWS

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Adams Cubs

The war whoops you hear are not the Indians coming back. They are just the practice cries of the Cub Scouts of Adams school who are going Indian in a big way this month.

Den 7, in addition to singing carols, made Indian tom toms. Den 9 busied themselves making clay bowls which they are painting with Indian designs.

Next Monday, Jan. 17, Frederick Dockstader, instructor at Cranbrook, will speak at Adams school, telling the Cubs about the Navajo Indians, their lives, traditions, dances, songs and stories. He has spent considerable time exploring in the Navajo country, and will have many interesting things to tell the boys. Indian-craft work which they have completed will be displayed by den members.

In addition to this, the members are planning a Lad-Dad banquet to be held in the Community House on Wednesday, Feb. 16. W. E. Kegel has been named chairman of the affair.

Pierce Pack B-7

Colorful Indian ceremonial dances will be presented by Dens 2 and 3 at the meeting of Pierce School Cub Pack B-7, Tuesday, Jan. 18. The two Dens tied for first place in the Pack's recent Achievement Race.

In observance of Scouting's 39th Anniversary, the members and sponsoring committee are planning several special events in the near future including an Ice Carnival on Quarton Lake, and a Father and Son Banquet at the Community House.

New members recently taken into the Pack include Robert Love, George Bouse, and Martin Knorr.
