Barons Lose Fourth Grid Contest, 7-0

By Bob Levin

Last Friday afternoon, the Bloomfield Hills Barons suffered their fourth defeat in six games by a 7-0 score at the hands of Log Cabin high school. The Hills squad was not the same inspired team that fought a losing battle with Big Beaver last week.

The game was close though, as neither team had a definite upper-hand in the game. Neither team could do much offensively in this unexciting game. Most of the time a punting battle between Proctor of the Hills and Reneaud of Cabin took place.

The Log Cabin touchdown came on a sustained drive of 69 yards, collecting four consecutive first downs. The play that set up the score was a pass from Fullback Reneaud to Halfback Gamble, covering 30 yards. Reneaud later went over for the score from the one foot line. Wittmer, the left halfback, kicked the extra point.

The closest BHHS came to a touchdown was the 11 yard line. Woody Proctor intercepted a pass on the 29, but bogged down on the 11. Another threat was when Proctor completed a pass to Alger Burnham, right end, who snagged it on the 22 yard line. But the Barons couldn't move.

The Barons will take on Clarkston at 3:30 p.m. next Friday at Bloomfield Hills.

Ergasterion's 21st Christmas Play Is Now in Rehearsal

Rehearsals are under way at Cranbrook for Ergasterion's 21st Christmas show, "A Young Man's Fancy." It will be presented directly after the Thanksgiving holidays, under the direction of Carl G. Wonnberger.

This show, by Harry Truschwell and Alfred Golden, was billed, during its nine months' run on Broadway, as "A Junior Hellzapoppin". It is an accumulation of fast-moving farcical situations all centered about life in a summer camp.

Heading the large cast of 43, all members of Ergasterion or guests from the Cranbrook summer theatre, will by Cynthia Creighton, Pat Hogan, Alice Shaw, Marcia Kelley, Tom Hawley, Ray Brant, Gene Tolfree and Bruce Williams.

As usual, the stage work will be under the guidance on Robert Louis Stevenson, with Mike Redfield and Dave Ball as co-directors of stage work. Robert Hoffman and Evans Meinecke will assist Wonnberger with the direction.

Also assisting with the production are Miss Janet Bainbridge, Miss Alice Price, Harold Newcomb, Ross A. Wagner, John Simonds and E. A. Hubbard, advisers of the Washington group.

The title is explained as "Everything from A to Z in the U. S. A."

Student committees will be announced next week.

Unofficial Swimming Practice At Barnum

Unofficial swimming practice began at Barnum pool last Tuesday for the members of the Birmingham swimming team not on the football and cross country teams.

As required by state swimming law, they are under the unofficial eye of Coach J. J. Myers. Still conditioning his cross country squad for the State meet next Saturday, Coach Myers will watch the swimmers from 4:30 to 6 o'clock after cross country practice. Next Monday swimming practice will officially begin.

The swimmers had done calisthenics for six days prior to entering the pool. This program consisted of nine stretching and pulling excercises. About 20 swimmers were present each of the six days.

The team will meet University high school at Ann Arbor, Dec. 2. It is expected that this will be one of the hardest meets of the season.

News and society copy must be in The Eccentric editorial office by 5 o'clock each Tuesday afternoon. Deadline for society club news is noon each Monday.

Students Dance As Spooks Take Over At Community House

The annual Holloween dance, given at the Community House following the parade and barbecue, provided fun and entertainment for all high school students.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Liverance, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kass, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clark, and Mrs. Helen McKanna.
