First Baptist Church News

The morning worship service next Sunday, Oct. 16, at 11 a.m. will include features in preparation for the "Christian Life Crusade" to be held the last week of the month. The Rev. Emil Konts will preach on the subject, "A Revival of Vital Religion". The ordinance of Biblical Baptism, with several young people participating will be observed and the sanctuary choir under direction of Mrs. Walter E. Turner will provide an appropriate anthem.

The Crusade is a local project in keeping with a nationwide movement sponsored by 20 leading Protestant denominations in America. The Crusade will be conducted by the Rev. Philip Forbes Taylor, a young preacher with extensive experience in leading such crusades. Dates for this project are Oct. 23-30, the last full week of the month.

Special services will be held nightly by Rev. Taylor. In addition to the practical exposition of Christian truth from the pulpit, Mr. Taylor will show movies in color from his library of travel films. The meetings are open to the public and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Last Sunday further notable progress was reported in the campaign to retire the church's mortgage by Dec. 1st. Walter E. Turner, speaking for the committee, indicated at the services last Sunday that over 75% of the goal had already been reached. The huge "thermometer" in the church shows the temperature rising steadily higher toward the top!

Special feature for the concluding session of the School of Christine Doctrine on Wed., Oct. 19, will be the showing of the recently released religious motion picture film entitled "Salt of the Earth". Theme for the evening session will be "The Christian Doctrine of Discipleship—Stewardship and Evangelism". The supper is served at cost at 6:45 p.m. and the program begins at 7:30 p.m.
