Maple Eleven Aims Gridiron Guns At "Target Dearborn"

By Jack Adams

"Target Dearborn" is the aim of a green Birmingham eleven tomorrow night when the Pioneers come to Pierce field for the season opener.

Dearborn has three returning lettermen and a squad of 85, under the direction of the new head coach Tex Walker who served previously as line coach. Breaking even last year with three wins, three losses, and one tie, Dearborn is sure to give the Maples a tough battle. Two experienced tackles, Jack Smith and Ken Martin, with veteran Mike O'Connell at end, star the 180 pound line of the Pioneer squad.

Beat Dearborn Last Year

Dearborn suffered defeat last year at the hands of Maples 6-0, but it must be remembered that graduation has left but two of last year's "jug winning" team available for the starting line-up.

Although Coach Vincent Secontine has not decided on his starting line-up, almost certain to see action are Chuck Baker, Joe Ross, Bud Boynton, Dick Mott, Mac Booth, Howard Liverance, Gordon Crawford, Ken MacQueen, Captain Bob Hardy, Chuck Olin and Tom Maxwell.

Last year the Maroons finished second in Eastern Michigan competition, losing their only league game to Ferndale, 13-12.

Vaughan Grads Off to College

Ninety per cent of the graduates of last year's high school class at the Vaughan school are going off to college this year, according to the alumni records of the Bloomfield Hills High office.

Students and the respective colleges they will attend are Barbara Bee, Garland; Eddie Burch, Washington & Lee; Tom Carey, Central State; Dorothy Duffield, Pontiac Business Institute; Shiela Flannery, Michigan State; Dick Hatt, Central State; Pat Lash, Central State; Jim Little, Michigan State; Jack McGregor, Highland Park Junior College; Sally Palmer, Stephens College.

Peggy Polley, Pontiac Business Institute; Howard Rogers, University of Michigan; George Splane, Hillsdale; Marlene Thomas, Michigan State; Tom Tweedale, Cornell; Dawn Tushbant, University of Florida, Miami; Joan Wood, Kalamazoo College; and John Ziegelbaur, Michigan State.

Dick Blake and Karl Rhodes are the remaining members of the class, whose college plans are uncertain, and may be deferred until a later year.

Staff of Hillcrest Chosen at Vaughan

The staff for the Bloomfield Hills High School annual, "The Hillcrest," was chosen this week by the members of the senior English literature class of the school.

Business manager, Larry Martz; ass't. business mgr., Don Bohls; sales manager, Nancy Tweedale; advertising manager, Joan Baldwin; faculty advisor, Kenneth Ollis.

Photographs for publication in The Eccentric must be submitted by Friday noon of the week before publication.

BHS Choir Sings At Play Field Dedication

Members of the Baldwin high school choir were guests at the dedication of the Garden City Rotary club's $10,000 play field Friday evening.

The field was started in 1946, with the entire amount having been raised by members of the city's Rotary club.
