Southfield Zoning Board Turns Down Request for Change

The Southfield township zoning board turned down a request to change the zoning from commercial to residential, of the property at the corner of Nine Mile and Evergreen road at the meeting Thursday evening, acording to Joseph Rankin, secretary of the group.

There was also some discussion concerning the Dixfield market at the corner of Eight Mile and Southfield. Some residents complained that rubbish was being burned outside and it created a nuisance.

The board stated it could do nothing about the situation because there was no zoning violation.

Commission Receives A Rarity—A Letter Praising the City

"A most pleasant type of communication."

"Most unusual, too."

"I think it should be framed."

These comments were made, respectively, by Mayor Bruce G. Booth, and City Commissioners Ralph A. Main and Garland D. Tait concerning a letter from Richard M. Patterson, 1622 Bates.

PATTERSON WROTE the commission expressing his pleasure at the city's prompt action regarding his request for a new street light at Bates and Southlawn.

The light has been ordered in, although it may be some weeks before Detroit Edison can get around to installing it, explained Dana Whitman, Jr., assistant to the city manager.
