Rites Performed at St. Dunstan's

Mrs. Charles C. Spreen of Yorkshire road was married Saturday evening in St. Dunstan's Chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook to Charles J. Ardussi, also of Birmingham. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at the rites.

For the ceremony, Mrs. Spreen wore a gown of aqua slipper satin with a matching hat and pink orchid bouquet. She was given in marriage by M. H. Chambers of Grosse Pointe.

Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Warren Beckwith of Jackson, Mich., as sole attendant was in a toast toned crepe with a gold hat and gold accessories. Her flowers were green orchids.

George Doering of Ferndale served as best man and the ushers were Otto Huth of Detroit and Charles Ardussi, a nephew of the groom of Birmingham.

For motoring to Florida Mrs. Ardussi selected a beige gabardine suit with brown accessories. Before returning to their home at 2324 Yorkshire, the couple will travel to Havana, New York and Philadelphia.

Photographs for publication in The Eccentric must be submitted by Friday noon of the week before publication.

Women's League for Peace and Freedom Will Meet Today

Local members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom have planned a meeting for today at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Harold Chalk, Manor road, for the purpose of organizing an Oakland County branch of the League.

All women desiring to work with a group whose aim is to establish by non-violent means those political, economic, and psychological conditions both at home and abroad which can assure peace and freedom are urged to attend this meeting.

The League is an international and interracial organization founded in 1915 under the leadership of Jane Addams, Nobel Peace Prize winner in 1931. Emily Greene Balch, Nobel Peace Prize recipient in 1946, is international chairman of the organization.

The goals of the league are: 1. World organization, functioning democratically within the framework of law, for the settlement of international disagreements and for the development of international economic and social cooperation.

2. The economic and social well-being of individuals and the protection of their civil rights and 3. Total and universal disarmament.

Local women active in the League are: Mrs. John K. Ormond, president of Birmingham Community Council; Mrs. George Hendrie; Mrs. John Gaffil; Mrs. J. N. Hadjisky; Mrs. Paul Baker; Mrs. Wallace Frost, Mrs. Caroline Burlingame; Mrs. A. D. McLay; Mrs. Lynn Russell; Mrs. Harry Markle of Rochester.
