Carnival Coming

This afternoon 20 home room mothers of Parker school will be guests at a tea at the home of Mrs. Al Douglas on Arlington drive. They will make plans, under the direction of the PTA President, Mrs. Richard Bush, for the forthcoming carnival to be held Saturday, April 15 at the school and her committees will be: bake sale, Mrs. George Sved, Mrs. Harry Nettle, Mrs. Warren Sauer and Mrs. Warner; dessert and coffee, Mrs. Victor Schwinke and Mrs. Forest; hot dogs, Mrs. A. Douglas and Mrs. Johnson. Toys and books, Mrs. Core and Mrs. Mountie; aprons, Mrs. Clark Montgomery and Mrs. Chester Mace; needlework, Mrs. Clinton Johnson and Mrs. Fairchild; popcorn and pop, Mrs. Eugene Cunningham and Mrs. Frank Cobb; stationary Mrs. Thomas Hogan and Mrs. Hopkins; plants, Mrs. Olson and Mrs. E. M. Duff.

Movies, Mrs. Ralph Conselyes and Mrs. Robert Buelter.

The Cub Scouts will take over the balloons and the Brownies will sell scatter pins. Even the dads will put forth all their effort by being clowns and carrying off a few games. The teachers will take over the fish pond and a side show will be presented by Richard Susan.

The carnival will start at 11 o'clock, go through luncheon into dinner and the evening. The PTA hopes plans for flourine treatments for the children will be approved and proceeds will go for this project.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jappell of Auburn drive entertained as their houseguest for several days last week Mrs. Marge Wiesner and daughter Annette of Kalamazoo.

Plan A Busy Evening

The Royal Oak-Beverly Hills association is once more getting into its yearly activities. Plans are being made for a buffet supper April 1. The evening will be spent in both round and square dancing and the Accidental Four will provide entertainment. Gerry Sharp is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Fries.

The committee is Mrs. Richard Bush, Mrs. L. K. Wyatt, Mrs. Frank Cobb and Mrs. Carling. This affair is for the adults but the children haven't been forgotten. They will celebrate April 8 at an Easter egg coloring party. Details will be given later.

Anniversary Noted

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bungee are celebrating their wedding anniversary today.

Birthdays

Last Saturday Mary Ann Stocker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Stocker of Buckingham, celebrated her fifth birthday with a party. Her guests were Peter Smith, Emilie Kurt, Christine Friess, Katherine Smith, Larry and Sally Ducharme, Debbie Weston, Patty Wyatt, Lee Sears, and Katherine Margaret Colwell.

Mrs. Al Douglas of Arlington entertained at a birthday luncheon Monday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Willard Damm of Grosse Pointe. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. Allen Sisson of Detroit and Mrs. Ellery Simpson of Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brain of Pierce will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Zwieback this coming week at a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Zwieback. The Zwiebacks are visiting here from Los Angeles, Calif.

Alan Campbell took his wife out to dinner last Wednesday to celebrate her birthday.

Card Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Geisler of Verona Circle gave a buffet supper before all settled down to a nice long evening of bridge. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Southard, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Post, Mr. and Mrs. Colvin Pearl and George Murphy. Everything for the evening was carried out in St. Patrick's day theme. The table was decorated in green napkins and cloth with tall green candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Werstine were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dusbeiber Saturday.

Mrs. John Southard was hostess for Canasta Saturday evening for Mrs. Nettie Eidt, Mrs. Katherine Eidt, and Miss Hazel Eidt all of Detroit.

Welcome!

Mr. and Mrs. John Mead, III recently moved into their new home on Sheridan drive. They have one daughter, Jane Ellen.

Amherst Senior Is Elected to Phi Beta Kappa

AMHERST, Mass.—George D. Miller, Jr., of Birmingham has been elected to the Amherst College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, fraternity. A senior, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Miller, 948 Fairfax.

This election was the first for the class of 1951 and the second for 1950. Seven juniors were tapped and 26 seniors.

Unlike many other chapters of Phi Beta Kappa, the Amherst group is selected by the undergraduate members on the basis of the faculty or alumni. There will be one more election for seniors in June.

A graduate of Cranbrook School, Miller is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity and the Amherst Glee Club.
