News About GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 324—FRANKLIN VILLAGE SCHOOL

Troop 324 was very active during the month of September. A party for the Franklin Fifth Grade Scouts was planned and given. Square dancing, led by Mrs. Bates and Mrs. VanDyke, highlighted the party.

An investiture service was held for Leona Evans. This troop sold comics and also served at the Country Fair. A field trip was made to a lumber mill, and many plans were made for Christmas projects. Many new games and songs were learned, and the troop has started work on a Juliette Low poster.

TROOP 335—PIERCE SCHOOL

The Brownies of Troop 335 will hold their Christmas party on December 17, their last meeting before the holiday season.

The last two meetings of this troop have been spent making Christmas presents for their mothers and sewing kits for patients of the Oakland Infirmary, Pontiac.

Charlene Olson brought the nibbles to the last meeting, and everyone enjoyed singing carols after they had finished their sewing kits.

Localite on TV Show

Mrs. Marguerite Mayne of Rackham drive, Lathrup Village, will be among the Zonta Club members taking part in the Arthur Murray television show at eight o'clock Friday evening, December 19, on channel 4.

Doris Eaton Travis, mistress of ceremonies, and herself a Zonta member, will interview president Edith Cummin.

Hills Hockey Enthusiast On All-American Roster

Field Hockey is more than just a game for school hours for Jean Siterlet, gym instructor at Bloomfield Hills High School.

Jean was named to the Reserve All-American field hockey team at the national tournament, held at Sweet Briar College, Va., over Thanksgiving.

Members of the first and second All-American teams will be selected to a team to compete at the first International Conference of Field Hockey, to be held in England, long a stronghold of women's field hockey, next fall.

Jean has applied for the trip and expects to be notified shortly.

THE YOUNG INSTRUCTOR, in her first year at the Bloomfield Hills school, learned the rudiments of the game at Michigan State Normal College and put the principles into practice at the Edison Institute where she taught for four years.

She does most of her playing now as left inner with teams in the Detroit Field Hockey Association which meets weekly.

As a member of the Great Lakes team, Jean went to the sectional tournament held earlier in the fall at Lake Erie, Pa. There she was chosen to represent the Lakes region at the national contest.

A DEVOTED advocate of the sport, Miss Siterlet is encouraged by the rise of local interest in the game which has heretofore been largely confined to private schools.

"National center of field hockey," she stated, "is in the East, largely around Philadelphia".

She makes her home at 15456 Lola Drive, Detroit.

Holiday Tea Tomorrow For Mothers, Daughters

At the end of classes and the beginning of Christmas vacation at Birmingham High School Friday afternoon, senior members of the CTA club will adjourn to the Hampstead avenue home of Mrs. George T. Webster and her daughters, Judy and Jean.

There they will be joined by their mothers for a holiday tea. Mrs. Webster has asked Mrs. Walter R. Mackenzie and Mrs. Sherman L. LeMessurier to pour.

Local Man Wed In Italy

From Naples, Italy, comes the announcement of the marriage of James R. Milldebrandt, USN, to Immaolate Guarino, daughter of Signora Bice Guarino. The ceremony took place in Naples on November 22.

Milldebrant is the son of former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Milldebrandt of Lewiston, Michigan.
