MISS ITALY—Another "Miss" is crowned beauty queen. Eloisa Ciani, 19, entered the Italian beauty contest as Miss Tuscany, competed with 23 lovelies from all over the peninsula at Merano in the Italian Alps where she was judged the prettiest.

Name Blood Bank Workers; Unit Due Here on Jan. 21

Names of volunteer aides to assist on Jan. 21 when church women of this area sponsor an American Red Cross blood bank at the Birmingham Community House from 2-8 p.m., were announced today by Mrs. P. L. Ledwidge, general chairman.

Serving as registrars for blood donors will be Mrs. Delyle Service, Mrs. Norris Host, Mrs. Carl Binkle and Mrs. E. W. Bardgett.

In charge of reception will be Mrs. Ruth Norton, Mrs. Harry Dumville, Mrs. Stephen Gillen and Mrs. Donald Babbitt. Publicity is being handled by Mrs. Kenneth Youel and Mrs. Babbitt.

CHURCH GROUPS sponsoring the blood bank are those of the Birmingham Council of Church Women and Holy Name, St. Hugo of the Hills and Our Lady Queen of Martyrs parishes.

Persons between the ages of 18 and 59 are acceptable as donors. Those between the ages of 18 and 21 are accepted only with the written consent of parents or legal guardians, unless in the Armed Forces.

News copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.

Toastmasters Meet After Holiday Recess

Birmingham Toastmasters Club number 957 of International, known locally as the TNT (Tuesday Night Toastmasters) group, resumed meetings Tuesday, Dec. 30, after a holiday recess.

Stuart Skelly served as Toastmaster with five minute talks being presented by William Andrews, Robert Forbes, Vincent Kepler, Pat Murphy and Arthur Slemmons. These were the first in a series to determine a representative from the local club to the district contest to be held in Detroit in March.

Several openings remain for businessmen in this group which meets each Tuesday at 6:45 p.m. at the Y.M.C.A.
