Obituary Notices

WILLIAM W. BARBER, 68, of 767 Emmons, died at his residence Friday.

Born in Pontiac August 3, 1885, he married Edna Addias April 14, 1915. A Birmingham resident since 1913, he was graduated from Pontiac school and Ferris Institute.

Employed by Pontiac Motors for 23 years, he was a retired inspector. He was previously employed by the DUR. Mr. Barber was a member of Metropolitan lodge 278, Knights of Pythias.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Robert W. H. and Willard T., both of Pontiac; three sisters, Mrs. Lottie Law of Rochester, Mrs. Jay Klump of Otsego and Mrs. Burton Hodges of Long Beach, Calif.; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday from the Manley Bailey funeral home, The Rev. J. E. Yates of the Emmanuel Evangelical and Reformed church, Royal Oak, officiated. Burial was in Oak Hill cemetery, Pontiac.

LEO DAVIDSON, 57, of 5740 Sussex, Troy township, died Friday at his residence following a brief illness.

A machinist, he was born Sept. 20, 1896, in Iowa. He married Agnes Willers in Detroit in 1925. Mr. Davidson was a member of the Calvary Presbyterian church, and Ionic lodge, F & AM, both in Detroit.

The body was taken from the Bell chapel of the William R. Hamilton company to Manistee for funeral service and burial on Tuesday.

CHRISTINE DUNCAN ELDER, 74, died June 10 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chalmer White, 1323 Webster. She was born June 22, 1879, in Scotland.

Surviving besides her daughter is her husband, Thomas; four grandchildren; and a brother and sister, James Clunie and Mrs. Hannah Craige, both of Scotland.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at the William Sullivan and Son funeral home in Royal Oak. Burial was in Oakview cemetery.

MRS. MARY FRANCES GOODRICH, 95, died June 9 at the home of her son, Carlos, in Marion. She is the mother of Mrs. Maurice H. Smith, 1527 Bennaville.

Mrs. Goodrich was born June 11, 1858 to Afin and Alfred Hyland in Hudson. She was married to Charles H. Goodrich Dec. 9, 1886. She was a member of the Methodist church in Marion.

Survivors include another daughter, Mrs. Harry Gillmore of Detroit, another son, Maurice of Oak Park; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at the Methodist Church with burial in Greenwood cemetery, Marion.

IN COMMENTING on his defeat, Lowe said, "I have served the board for ten years, and I have no ill feeling about being defeated. The voters wanted a change, and I am glad they had the opportunity to make that change in some countries they could not do so."

Candidates in Troy's election received these votes; Little, 330; Tunstall, 337; Lowe, 238; William L. Acton, 138; Jacob Birneman, 52.

Incumbents in Southfield's board election, president Fred Leonhard and treasurer Will Oliver, were successful in their bids for re-election.

The vote in Southfield was Leonhard, 457; Oliver, 445; John Dzendzel, 198; Mrs. Elizabeth Molnar, 257; and Jesse I. Richter, 102.

UNOPPOSED for election in Bloomfield Hills district, incumbent Merrill Jocelyn received 240 votes, and newcomer Douglas L. Jocelyn polled 254 votes.

Jocelyn will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of the term of board president Edward Proctor. Proctor did not file for re-election.

tem much the same as Golver proposes. Board members asked that a plan of the system's engineering be submitted at the next meeting and agreed tentatively to accept the system under their authority on special assessment program.

Other property owners adjacent to the Leonard Lane subdivision are expected to sign petitions for the system.

Supervisor Norman Barnard Tuesday speculated that all property along Adams road between 16 mile and 17 mile might soon be developed under private sewer plans.

Tennis Season Short This Year

Play for the nearly 100 members of the Birmingham Tennis club started Sunday, June 13, at the Kingswood school courts.

Facing an abbreviated season because of proposed replacing of the school's courts, club officials have no plants for tournaments this season other than the annual club tourney in July. Play will end for the club on August 8 unless another site can be found.

Members can use the courts from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. 6 week days and from 9 a.m. until 8 p.m. on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Court manager this season is Jim Sergeson.

Officers this year are Ed Dingler, president-treasurer; Jack Watson, vice-president; and Jim Harrison, secretary. Board members include Ray Sackett, Peter Stewart and Dick Gaborl.
