3 Special Hours For Registration

Special Saturday morning hours for registering Birmingham electors were announced this week by City Clerk Irene Hanley.

Miss Hanley said that each Saturday morning during June, from 9 to 12 o'clock, her office will be open so newcomers may register for the August 3 state primary election.

Registration deadline, she said, is July 6 at 8 p.m.

Detroit Police Recover Loot From Burglaries

Loot from two burglaries that took place in Birmingham early Tuesday morning was recovered soon after by Detroit police who also arrested a suspect.

"Shortly after Birmingham police discovered a break-in at 415 E. Frank, Detroit police received a call that a burglary was in progress on Elmhurst in Detroit.

Detroit police found their quarry had fled, but search of the immediate area turned up a car containing the loot taken from the Frank street address and also goods taken from a shop at 247 W. Maple, where a break-in was discovered later in the morning.

Checking on the owner of the car, police arrested John Gajor, 41, of 7001 Anthony, Dearborn. He is being held in the tenth precinct in Detroit pending investigation.

CUB SCOUTS

Picnic To Close Pack B-8 Meetings

A family picnic June 12 at Kensington Park is planned to observe the end of the Cub Scout year's activities by members of Pack B-8.

Lunch and planned activities have been planned in the beach lake picnic area from 12 noon until 4 p.m. for all members of the troop, their parents and relatives.

City Takes Bids For Nine Trucks

Bids on a trade-in deal for nine new trucks for the Birmingham DPW have been received by Robert Kenning, DPW manager. The bids now are under study and contracts are expected to be let at the Monday night meeting of the City commission.

The trucks the city intends to buy are pickup models, four half ton, and five three-quarter ton.

Two half ton, six three-quarter ton and one dump truck presently owned by the city will be traded in.

In Boston for Film Festival

Charles Renfrew, 319 Henley, represented the Jam Handy organization at the Boston Film Festival in Boston June 2 where an award of merit was presented to Peoples' Gas Light and Coke Company for its film "Play It Safe," produced by Jam Handy.

The film demonstrates to supervisory personnel safety practices in the use of grinding wheels, and was selected from over 200 films which were entered in the competition.

★ Smile a Minute ★

Somewhere in Scotland a rector of a country parish was hunting up isolated church people.

Calling at one cottage, he asked the woman who came to the door if there were any Episcopalians in her neighborhood.

"Well, sir, I don't rightly know, but my husband shot some strange creature the other night, and its skin is on the barn door; you might take a look at it."

SAFETY STRIP—This safety-minded boy of Columbus, Ohio, is wearing initials made of cloth strips which reflect bright light. Designed to be worn by pedestrians, the idea grew out of a doctor's desire to prevent highway accidents.
