Institute Talk

When the Detroit Institute of Arts lecture series began last week, Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills art fans were among the listeners.

Those hearing Daniel Catton Rich talk on French painting of the 1880's and sharing in the tea and coffee social hour afterward included the Harvey Walkers, the Paul N. Averills, the Dr. Robert Hatts all of the Hills.

BIRMINGHAMITES WERE Mr. and Mrs. Glen Maier, Mrs. J. Vinton Birch, Mildred Williams and Mrs. Wallace Doddy, Mrs. Winthrop Conrad of Franklin, and Mrs. Ralph D. Williams of Bloomfield Hills were also at the events.

The Founders society of the institute, to which most of those mentioned belong, was sponsor of the evening event and will also offer the Dec. 8 talk on collection of American Antiques by Alice Winchester, editor of Antiques magazine.

Concert Pianist To Visit City

Birmingham residents are having a musical highlight on Dec. 1, when Jean Goldkette, internationally famed concert pianist, appears at the Birmingham theater under sponsorship of the Birmingham Kiwanis Club. It was announced today by Clarence Nichols, chairman.

"We feel fortunate indeed in being able to bring such a great artist to Birmingham," Nichols said, "and we are determined to make this one of the outstanding event of the season."

MSC Students Tell Troth

The dinner party Sunday at the Hylane drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Kennedy had a threefold purpose — to celebrate Halloween, a birthday and an engagement.

Their daughter, Joan Martha, received her ring from Merle Kenneth Sackman, on her birthday which revealed the troth.

The bride-elect was graduated from Cass Technical high school in Detroit and is a junior at Michigan State college where she is majoring in art and education. Joan is on the Dean's list, was an all "A" student last year and plans to teach art in a secondary school and supplement by illustrating children's books. She has shown art work for the Detroit Board of Education and illustrated film strips which are used in the Detroit Schools. A member of Delta Pi Delta honorary, she is a former Detroit beauty queen.

MERLE is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sackman of Cedarville, in the Upper Peninsula. He was graduated from Cedarville high school and is a senior at Michigan college where he is majoring in business administration. A member of the ROTC, he will receive his commission as a Second Lt. when he graduates in June. Merle is a member of the Officers club, Management club and is affiliated with Pi Kappa Tau business fraternity.

Guests at the announcement party included the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Agnes Kennedy of Waunakee, Wis. and Mrs. John Rice and children, Charles Kennedy, Charles Reynold and Margie Ritter, Lynn Alexander, Joseph J. Kennedy, Jr. and Karen Kennedy.

Portrait Artists Show Paintings

Portrait Artist Associates are offering to the public its latest exhibit of portrait paintings. Paintings were put on display at Jacobson's on Tuesday and the showing will continue for a week.

Mrs. Helen Allison of Bloomfield Hills is president of the organization. Other local members participating will be Mrs. Matter Robeson, Mrs. Esther Bacon, Mrs. Pauline Eicke and Mrs. H. P. Sedge.

Gem Salesman Tells Of $66,000 Theft

E. J. Danzinger, 6325 Sherringham, Bloomfield township, reported to Fort Wayne, Ind. police the Oct. 28 theft of 400 diamond rings, valued at $66,000.

Danzinger, a jewelry salesman, said the gems were in a brief case and stolen in an office storeroom at the Hotel Van Orman, Fort Wayne.

Obituary Notices

Ralph S. Beale Auto Fatality

Chairman of the Troy Township Republican committee, Ralph S. Beale, 65, died Saturday of injuries received when his car struck a tree on 19 Mile road.

Former sales manager of Norge division of the Borg-Warner Corp., he lived at 2804 East Square Lake road, Troy township. He was more recently associated with William Boening, Charles Jorrett and Murray D. VanWagoner in VAA Sanitation Co.

Mr. Beale was born Sept. 26, 1889, in Albany, N.Y., and married Mae Ward in Rutland, Vt., May 30, 1922. He was graduated from Columbia University. A member of Christ Church Cranbrook, he was tenor soloist there until two years ago.

Mr. Beale was a member of the Masonic lodge in Albany, a 32nd degree Mason, a member of the Scottish Rites and Knights Templar and a former member of the Grosse Pointe Rotary club.

Survivors include his widow, Mae Ward Beale; a son, Robert, who is serving in the Army in Korea; and a sister, Miss Max V. Beckstedt of Albany, N.Y.

Arrangements are pending at the Manley Bailey funeral home, awaiting word from the son in Korea.

MRS. CORA LOUISE PACKER, 82, of 620 West Frank street, died Friday at her residence following a long illness.

Born April 2, 1872, in Detroit, she was a Birmingham resident for 28 years. Mrs. Packer was the widow of David T. Packer, who had been the Chevrolet distributor for northern Michigan until his death in 1930.

Mrs. Packer was graduated from Detroit Business Institute and Mrs. Noble's School of Expression. She was a member of Holy Name church.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Maude Packer Mack of Birmingham; four grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Harry J. Fox of Detroit and a brother, Louis P. Barton of Detroit.

Rosary was said Monday at the Bell chapel of the Wm. R. Hamilton Co. and requiem mass Tuesday at St. Hugo of the Hills. Burial was in Forestlawn cemetery, Saginaw.

JOSEPH DORR KINNEY, 79, retired banker, died last Thursday in the Detroit Osteopathic hospital. His home was at 885 Covington, Detroit.

Mr. Kinney was the father of Elliot S. Kinney, president of Snyder, Kinney & Bennett, Inc., Birmingham realtors. Born in Bay City, he was an officer of the Bay City Bank.

An employee in the payroll office of the Ford Motor company, Mr. Kinney was a 32nd degree Mason and a Moslem Temple Shriner. Survivors include his wife, Ethel; a daughter, Mrs. R. Grey Firth; and two other sons, Joseph D., Jr. and Stoddard.
