interest. "Sure we could move it but if we did it would hit somebody else," Higgins said.

Higgins told newsmen following the meeting that Ziegler's turnpike apathy did not affect his plans to speed final route approval or the authority's announced intentions of proceeding with financing for the road, when the Michigan Supreme Court rules on validation of the Turnpike act this fall.

COUNTY ENDORSES

OAKLAND COUNTY ROAD commission today endorsed the proposed Rockwood to Saginaw Turnpike after a brief conference with Turnpike Authority chairman, George N. Higgins.

The endorsement said there was a critical need for the 113 mile dual lane divided limited access expressway.

Higgins conferred with Lee O. Brooks, Chairman of the Oakland County Road Commission; Robert G. Felt and Sol D. Lomenson, commissioners, and Don R. MacDonald, Chairman of the roads committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

The Commission issued the following statement.

"AN EVER increasing amount of traffic is being dumped into Oakland county on a road system that is not built to handle the volume. The result has been critical traffic jams on weekends, overcrowded traffic conditions on many main arteries during the week and an increase in traffic accidents and deaths.

"THE COMMISSION has studied the effect the north-south Turnpike will have on the county and finds it will remove millions of trucks and cars from existing roads, offering relief for present traffic congestion and less wear and tear on our highways.

"The Turnpike will offer a non-stop north-south movement throughout the entire length of Oakland County for through traffic as well as provide speedy access to the north or south for residents of Oakland County who choose to use the turnpike facility.

"THERE IS no question that the Turnpike will be a great benefit to the relief of traffic congestion in Oakland County without using tax dollars which are required for other badly needed highway improvements in this area.

"The commission understands the Turnpike will be ready for traffic 39 months after financing is arranged and that such financing is anticipated this fall after a Michigan Supreme Court ruling validating the sale of turnpike bonds.

"The Commission urges the Turnpike Authority to proceed with all possible speed to get the project underway."

Garden Club Hears William H. Hudson

FRANKLIN — The Franklin Garden Club met last Thursday evening at the Riverwood road home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell.

William Henry Hudson, guest speaker, discussed the nine months of color in gardens and showed pertinent color slides.

Albert Foleys Host Lobster Dinner for Four Neighbors

Before leaving Newburyport, Mass., where they vacationed for five weeks, the Albert Foleys arranged to have 20 Maine lobsters flown back to Birmingham, so they could have a neighborhood lobster feast.

The lobsters arrived and on Friday, four neighbor families were invited to a lobster supper in the Richard Kowalcycks' back yard. Present, besides the Foleys and the Kowalcycks, were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. William Meakin and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Zimmerman.

The Foleys, with their daughter, Maureen, spent their seaside vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jones.

Last Saturday Maureen celebrated her ninth birthday with the help of Susan Zimmerman, Michele Grenier, Nancy Leary, Kathleen Darga and Nancy McKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dalley and Barbara assumed they were going to go to a cool spot for their vacation but were surprised when they reached Laconia, N. H., to find that it was having a record hot spell, too.

While there they stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Griffe and Mrs. Dalley's mother, Mrs. T. E. Clarke. On the way home they took enough time out to have lunch overlooking Niagara Falls.

Sunday Barbara celebrated her ninth birthday at a dinner party. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dalley, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Jones and their son Terry, came out from Detroit for the occasion. Kathie Pitlock was also one of the guests. The high point of the day for Barbara was reached when she received a Sheltie puppy from her parents.

VISIT IN ILLINOIS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Osterling of Auburn drive had a special reason for going home this year. They and their daughter, Linda, and son, Dickie, were anxious to introduce their twins, Pam and Pat, to relatives.

They stayed at the home of Mrs. G. V. Osterling, Paul's mother, in Lombard, Ill. and also at Glen Ellyn, Ill., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sturtz, Dorothy's parents.

Saturday, Michael Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds, will be six years old.

A party celebrating the occasion will be held at the Reynolds home on Verona circle, and the guests will include Danny Taggart, Andy Bela, Douglas Pearl, Freddie Dindoffer, Terry Jack, Jeffrey Laica, Tommie and Stevie Shannon, Peter McDonald, Bobbie Capinjola and Chuckie Post, as well as brother Jimmie and sister Joan.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campion of Locherbie and their sons, Dennis and Joe, are making good use of their cottage up on Saginaw Bay this year. With the weather being what it is, they have returned home only briefly and then headed back to the water.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Upward of Beechwood and their children, Janie and Jeff, spent two weeks relaxing at Hobby Crest Lodge on Hamlin Lake in Ludington.

ATTEND DAY CAMP

The Girl Scout Day Camp, Indianwood, has given several East Beverly girls an exciting time the last two weeks.

Kit Sifferman, Kathleen Kelly, Judy Fedack, Laura Johnson, Carolyn Naylon, Gay Marie Kelly and Susan Mahr meet at Pierce school each morning at 9 o'clock sharp to board the bus that takes them off to camp for the day.

Newcomers from Detroit are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bosch and their daughter, Dorothy, at 16100 Buckingham.

Dorothy is an avid golfer and swimmer and was able to do a little of each at Hubbard Lake the past two weeks while she was vacationing with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Langford.

Dorothy is now back at work with Mechanical Handling system. Bosch is associated with Hoover Tool and Die co.

The two Mike Kellys of East Beverly, both 12 years old, picked the same time to take their first vacation, alone. Mr. and Mrs. J. Stuart Kelly's Mike, who saved his money all winter so he could visit a friend in Boulder, Colo., left last Thursday on a Scenicruiser and arrived in Boulder on Saturday. He is visiting the W. D. Georges and will be there for three weeks.

The other Mike Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kelly of Auburn drive, boarded a plane two weeks ago for Cleveland, where he was met by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Perkins, former residents of Auburn drive, and their son, Bill. Mike is staying with the Perkinses at their new home in Bay Village.

Swim Skill of Wing Lake Kids Kitty Kirn Tests

WING LAKE—As a wind-up to their summer swimming instructions, about 70 children from Wing Lake Farms and Wing Lake Shores participated in two days of races last week.

Kitty Kirn of Birmingham, who has been in charge of the swimming lessons as a qualified A.R.C. instructor, supervised the final competitions.

The swimmers, ranging in age from 4 to 15, were classified as beginners, intermediates or advanced, according to Red Cross standards, and all placed in some event, winning first, second or third rank ribbons. Later they will receive cards, buttons and badges from the Red Cross.

Five youngsters who took the Junior life-saving course and will undergo proficiency tests in two weeks were Charles Stuckey, Cynthia Carr, Robert Hanba, Sara Davis and Karen Koehp.

Friendly, Evening Circles Hold Dance

FRANKLIN—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green opened their home on Woodlore drive last Sunday evening to members of the Friendly and Evening Circles and their husbands for a box social and square dance.

The dance was held on the Greens' tennis court, gayly lighted by Japanese lanterns. One hundred couples were invited, with proceeds going to the Franklin Community church.

Co-hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Preston Dozier, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Hampson.

Home from Tawas, Joneses Leave for Niagara Falls

The Roy Joneses and their girls, Karen and Kathy, are having a busy and varied summer, starting off with a two-weeks visit to Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Frank Talkington, at her summer home at East Tawas.

Home again for a week, they took off last Friday for a vacation tour which will take them to Niagara Falls, to Munsville, N. Y., Jones' home town, to visit relatives, to the Adirondacks where they will spend a week at Tupper Lake, and on to Watkins Glen for a further vacation stay.

Mrs. Norman Currin will be hostess to members of the Friendly Circle when they meet at her home on Captains Lane for a potluck luncheon at 12:30 p.m. next Wednesday.

Mrs. D. Carlton Bell and Mrs. Robert Yingling will serve as co-hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hacker and their daughter, Rulaine, are on the west coast. They flew to Los Angeles for the convention of the Mail Advertisers service association and some sight-seeing.

The James Gillens, of Wellington road, have had as visitors for a week Mrs. Gillen's sister, Mrs. Eben Sipple of Philadelphia. The Gillens and the William McNarys of Birmingham will go to Stratford, Ont. tomorrow to see the Stratford Players present "The Merchant of Venice."

HOME FROM NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doty and their son, Bill, have returned to their home on Greenbrier road after a Canadian vacation. They spent their home on Colony Hill road last Tuesday night with members of her bridge club and their husbands as guests.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Skeels, the Dave Bartlesons, the Dick Caskeys, the Nick Rosiellos, the Bob Egans, the Leonard Pogues and the Ralph Charbeneaus.

FAREWELL PARTY

Misses Gale McIntosh and Joan Trouteaud were joint hostesses at the McIntosh home on Colony Hill road at a farewell party for Nancy Broders who will be leaving Franklin soon to make her home in Philadelphia.

The affair included a cookout and slumber party and Nancy was presented with a gift by her two friends.

The Kenneth Thompsons, of Crestwood drive, and their children, Pam and Cary, have had a three week holiday at their family summer cottage at Michillinda, on Lake Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Rassmussen, of Romany Way, announce the birth of a son, Kurt Smith, on July 31. Kurt weighed 7 pounds, 11 ounces upon arrival.

"Light" Snack For Ducks

Coming back from Balesville the other night I noticed a powerful light at Whitey Fisher's Duck Farm. Seemed to be shining out over the water.

I stopped to ask Whitey what went on. He took me down to his pond and pointed out a 200-watt bulb—rigged up on a pole about three feet above the surface. The light was attracting thousands of insects for the ducks to eat.

Seemed kind of odd to me—but Whitey was enthusiastic. "Best idea I ever heard of," he claims. "Keeps the feed bill down—and the bug population, too. Why do you suppose I never thought of it before?"

From where I sit, Whitey's the type who's always ready to pioneer a worth-while new trick. Me, I stick to old methods. Just a case of personal feeling, I guess . . . like the way you may prefer coffee with meals while I always prefer a traditional glass of beer. Not that I'd claim you're wrong—respect for the other man's opinion is my "guiding light."
