MRS. FLOYD W. SNYDER

Gold Velvet Gowns Worn by Attendants

Attendants in gold velvet descended the aisle of the First Presbyterian church before Patricia Mae Carney for her marriage to Floyd Wilson Snyder Saturday. The Rev. Glen W. Harris officiated at the double-ring rites before 75 wedding guests.

Patricia's ballerina length bridal gown was of chantilly lace. She wore a bonnet of pearls to secure her elbow length veil of French illusion. She carried a loose colonial bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy leaves.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Rose of Berkley. Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. O. Snyder of Eastlady drive are the parents of the groom.

HONOR attendant was Virginia L. Rose and bridesmaid was Mrs. Charles R. Rose. With their ballerina length gowns they wore headdresses of gold velvet leaves and carried burnt orange chrysanthemums.

Walter J. Novak was best man. Guests were seated by Stuart T. Pilcher and Charles Rose.

Mrs. Carney's slate blue taffeta with a lace bodice had inserts of light beige. Mrs. Snyder wore sand beige accessories with her moss green raw silk dress. Both mothers had white orchid corsages.

AFTER the reception at the home of the groom's parents, the couple left for a motor trip through the Smoky Mountains to Florida's Gulf coast. For traveling Patricia donned a navy blue suit of Italian raw silk trimmed with velvet.

After Oct. 14 they will make their home in Birmingham.
