G. ROBERT Harrington, of 1220 S. Bates, Birmingham, has been appointed division commercial superintendent for the Michigan Bell Telephone company in its southeastern area. Since Harrington joined the company at Grand Rapids in 1942, he has filled numerous managerial positions. He transferred to Michigan Bell's newly-formed merchandising group in 1954 and became general merchandising supervisor a year ago.

Teen-ager Ticketed

Police ticketed Valerie M. Finnie, 17, of 1079 Pilgrim, Birmingham, for failure to have her car under control when it struck a parked car Friday. The driver was taken to Beaumont hospital for emergency treatment of lacerations after the accident occurred on Pilgrim road between Maple and Pine.

We Heard It Said By:

RALPH W. MOXLEY, Birmingham police chief: "To me, the most difficult type of an offense to prove and obtain a conviction on is that of driving under the influence of liquor. It is very difficult for police to produce evidence that will convince all 12 members on a jury that the defendant was unquestionably under the influence of liquor. Often, the fact that a jury member drinks himself will influence his thinking on the defendant's guilt."
