Walled Lake Whips Cranes

Walled Lake demonstrated to Cranbrook Tuesday why it is the number one seeded Class B quintet in the state, as the Lakers completely outplayed the Cranes 75-42.

Cranbrook found itself trailing 22-9 at the quarter, 37-21 at the half, and the Cranes were outscored 28-21 in the final two periods.

Larry Hughes led Walled Lake with 26 points. John Walker, the Lakers' all-state halfback, scored 11. John Studebaker was high man for the Cranes with 17.

The Brooklyn Dodgers set a new record for lowest team batting average in a World Series. The Bums hit .195 last year against Yankee pitching.

Valley Woods Social Briefs

Wednesday morning Mrs. John Calhoun of Bellvine trail hosted the Valley Woods teen club mothers committee. Plans were made for future activities followed by luncheon and cards.

Friday, Feb. 22 at 7:00 p.m., the young set will meet for supper and roller skating. Mrs. Albert Kacy of Lasher road will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Ettell and Mrs. Cameron Shafer.

On March 23, the teen group will meet for bowling and supper. Reservations must be made in advance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Breezewood court attended a family gathering Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Servatz Spreder of Detroit in honor of Mrs. Spreder's birthday.

Sunday afternoon the Harrison's entertained at dinner, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and children Susie and Billy. The fathers took the youngsters ice skating at the golf club before dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Andrus of Eastlady road celebrated son Gary's 15 birthday at a dinner party for his friends.

A warm welcome is extended to the Donald Young family on Westlady road formerly from Indianapolis, Ind. Leigh, 12, attends Derby junior high and has a sister Dey, 1, at home.

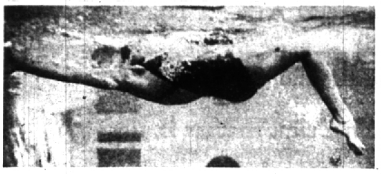
Mr. Young is a bank specialist and regional sales manager for The Todd Co., Inc. After settling in their home, Don is looking forward to spring and golf. The Youngs attend the Birmingham First Presbyterian church.

Newly elected to the Berkshire Hills Protective association are two residents of Forest lane—Michael Glime, for a 3 year term and Ben Robertson, 2 year term.

New neighbors of Forest lane are Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Armbrust, formerly of Birmingham. Son Richard attends Western Michigan college at Kalamazoo and there is Dick, Christine and 10 month-old Steven Mark at home. Mr. Armbrust is president and owner of Smith & Andrews Construction Co. Both Mr. and Mrs. Armbrust are interested in horsemanship and never fail to attend the horse shows. They are charter members of Kirk-in-the-Hills church.

Dr. and Mrs. John Champagne of Bellvine trail entertained grandparents Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Champagne at dinner on Valentines day.

Wednesday evening at Torry school, the Fox tribe of the Indian Guides were inducted into the Birmingham council. The Iroquois tribe acted as hosts and led the induction. Ken and Kenny, Kittle of Westlady represented their tribe.



KAREN RYAN of the Ann Arbor Swim Club demonstrates the new dolphin backstroke developed by coach Rose Mary Mana Dawson. The picture was photographed through the underwater window at the University of Michigan women's pool. Miss Ryan will perform the new stroke in an exhibition during the Ann Arbor-Williams Lake swimming meet at Birmingham high school February 24, beginning at 3 p.m.

Bloomfield Hills High School PTO Hosts Teachers

BLOOMFIELD — Parent Teachers Organization of Bloomfield Hills high school entertained junior and senior high school teachers Monday evening at a reception held at the school.

Miss Vera Grimm and Miss Eilene Green, high school teachers, gave their views and observations of education abroad as it compares or differs with America.

Miss Grimm, a teacher at Bloomfield for the past several years, spent last year teaching in the Netherlands. Miss Green, an exchange teacher from England, is teaching this year at Bloomfield.
