Harry Allen's Service Noted In Resolution

Birmingham's city commission Monday night placed in the city records a memorial resolution outlining the community contribution made by the late Harry Allen, former village president and mayor.

Mr. Allen died Sept. 16 after a long illness. He was 75 years old.

The resolution reads:

"WHEREAS, Harry Allen, who was born February 19, 1882, and died September 16, 1957, has been a citizen and resident of the city (formerly village) of Birmingham throughout the greater part of his lifetime, and served the people of his community as village attorney from 1914 to 1918; as a member of the village and city commissions from 1929 to 1936; as village president from 1930 to 1933; as chairman of the city charter commission from 1932 to 1933; as mayor of the city of Birmingham from 1933 to 1936; and as a member of the library board from 1944 until his resignation May 23, 1957, and

* * *

"WHEREAS, AMONG the many important accomplishments to which he unstintedly devoted his time and energy in public office were the transition of the municipality from a village to a city in 1932 and 1933; the substantial reduction in the cost of local government during his administration as chief executive of the village and city, the preparation and adoption of a new city charter and building code, and many projects dealing with the permanent development of the growing city as a fine residential community, and

"WHEREAS, throughout his career as an able and successful lawyer and public office holder, his life has been characterized by the highest standards of honor, integrity, and civic responsibility; and it is the desire of this commission to permanently record its respect and esteem for this distinguished and friendly neighbor, citizen and gentleman; * * *

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this resolution adopted this 23rd day of September, 1957, by the unanimous vote of the city commission of the city of Birmingham, Michigan, shall be recorded in the minutes of this meeting as a memorial to the staunch and valued service of Harry Allen during his many years in public office and to his sterling character and ability as a lawyer and civic leader, and

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a duly engrossed copy of this resolution be submitted to Mr. Allen's surviving family as an expression of the sincere and heartfelt sympathy of this commission and the people of this city in their bereavement."
