STEWART ALSOP

Stewart Alsop Slated to Speak Here Next Week

Noted as a newspaperman and writer, Stewart Alsop will be in Birmingham next Thursday and Friday to speak at Birmingham Town Hall.

He will address the lecture series' season ticket holders both days at 11 a.m. at the Birmingham theatre. Alsop, who formerly co-authored a syndicated newspaper column with his brother, Joseph, will be a guest of honor at a celebrity luncheon at Birmingham country club following his lecture here.

He will be introduced both days by Mrs. George Cary. Other guests at the speaker's table will be Mrs. Charles Renfrew, Mrs. John Burke and Mrs. Paul Reed on Thursday, and Mrs. Eleanor Elliott, George R. Averill, publisher of The Birmingham Eccentric, Mrs. Morris Halsted and Mrs. E. W. May on Friday.

Membership Cards To Go On Sale

Joan Rasmussen, publicity chairman; and Jim Ruhley, committee member, announce that membership cards for the Birmingham Teen Center will go on sale March 6.

Opening date for the center will be April 10. Junior board members will meet Monday at the high school to discuss tickets.

Notices of church group meetings and special services must be submitted in writing by 3 p.m. on Thursday before publication date.
