HOME NOTES.

There is a happy man in Southfield is Cassius Crawford and next to him is J. H. Carter. Cassius owns the well and Carter loved it. It is a high flyer and fills a three-quarter inch pipe and flows to a considerable height above the ground.

They want a teacher of the masculine gender in the new Walnut Lake school house, and they have an applicant as yet. Good wages: five months school.

There will be a dance in the town hall of Southfield Friday Sept. 17. There will be excellent music in attendance, and all are invited to have a jolly good time.

Constable Crouch of Troy is dead; says he never a constable; he a deputy sheriff d. p. q. t. There, now!

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller of Calumet, parents of O. B. Fuller of our town, made Birmingham a short visit last week.

A good active girl wanting to work for her board and attend school can be accommodated by calling on Mrs. G. F. Aldrich.

George F. Aldrich will live on pumpkin pie the rest of his life. He has a pumpkin six feet by six and weighs 92 pounds and it all going pie-wads.

Mr. M. K. Taber and Mrs. E. M. Leonard are visiting the family of Samuel Sells at Bath, Livingston county, N. Y.

The earthquake was felt in our midst by several parties. Some day undoubtedly we will have a terrific shock that will make us all look across different ways.

What horrible mistakes printers will make to be sure. Last week we said that Miss Belle Curtis was in a shop...

FINANCIAL.

To the Directors and Trustees of Fraternal School District No. 17 of the Township of Southfield, Mich. You are requested to report the following receipts and disbursements for the year ending...

REV. G. W. LOWE preached his farewell sermon at the M. E. church last Sunday and a very large congregation listened to a brilliant sermon.

At a recent meeting of the quarterly conference of the M. E. church, held at the residence of Rev. G. W. Lowe, pastor of the M. E. church, has been indefatigable in his labors for a grand success.

At the close of the Sabbath school a rousing vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Lowe as a testimonial of the very high regard that the worthy couple have won from the school.

The musical given by the Masonic fraternity at the lodge room, No. 14 was one of the most successful of the year.

At the close of the Sabbath school a rousing vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Lowe as a testimonial of the very high regard that the worthy couple have won from the school.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

On Saturday last we put on our cap and collar, grabbed our umbrella, and decided to take the car to the city.

On Saturday last we put on our cap and collar, grabbed our umbrella, and decided to take the car to the city. We went to the car and made like usual at a set of yellow jackets, floated to our cars and we found ourselves being inflated by a hose.
