ECCENTRIC PHOTO

Commencing

Preschool of Westmaple Nursery, sponsored by Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, donned miniature mortar boards and gowns for graduation exercises recently. They are shown here as they march to get their diplomas. Six teachers and director Mrs. Theodore Wuggazer, wife of the Rev. Theodore Wuggazer, helped the small-fry students prepare themselves for a new way of life—they'll all attend kindergarten in the fall.

Newlywed Robert Gillows Honeymooning in Bermuda

Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church in Detroit was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Judith Ann Earle to Robert Henry Gillow. Dr. Herbert Hudnut performed the 4:30 ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Earle of Grosse Pointe. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Peter P. Ellis of Detroit and the late Clarence Gillow.

FOR HER wedding, the bride chose a gown of white silk organza featuring a fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt extending into a chapel train. The bridal bouquet consisted of gardenias and ivy. A white satin bow secured her silk illusion veil.

Mrs. G. Michael O'Neal served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Keal and Carol A. Gillow. They wore silk linen shantung and carried lilies.

R. BRUCE McClelland stood as best man and ushers were Glenn Robertson, Samuel Alex, Frank Taylor and Robert Earle.

A reception followed at the University Club with Mr. and Mrs. David Hinks acting as hosts.

MRS. ROBERT GILLOW

The new Mrs. Gillow changed into a blue linen suit with patent leather accessories to start her wedding trip to Bermuda. They will reside in Birmingham.

Mrs. Hink wore a pink Italian silk suit and Mrs. Ellis chose a cardin blue outfit.

List of Parties to Honor Bride-elect Miss Adams

Parties hold the spotlight for Anniejane Adams, who will become the bride of Robert G. Harris on July 23. Dr. W. Glen Harris, father of the groom, will perform the ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Herman Bundy, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Coleman, started the merry-go round with a "bermuda" supper and kitchen-ware package shower on June 15. On June 21, Mrs. Nelson Miles and Mrs. H. John Lowry, neighbors on Westwood Drive, joined forces for a luncheon and linen shower at the Detroit Golf Club. Mrs. C. B. Aske Jr., with Mrs. P. Russell Olin as co-hostess, plans a luncheon and miscellaneous shower in her home on Pilgrim Road on June 29.

A PERSONAL shower for the bride will be combined with a luncheon by Mrs. Albert C. Childs on July 7. The following day will find Anniejane deep in a kitchen shower given by Mrs. Charles McKinley and her daughter, Mrs. Gale Fox of Sacinaw.

Mrs. J. S. McDaniel of Glengary Circle and her daughter, Mrs. John H. Keller, have chosen July 12 as the perfect day for a coffee and pantry and recipe shower.

MRS. N. A. THURESON, Mrs. Walter Dreyer and Mrs. Clifford Baugh are inviting Anniejane and close friends to luncheon on July 13 at Plum Hollow Golf Club.

The final shower will be a fling with the young set, when Miss Myrna Moxley, one of the bridesmaids, assisted by Myrna's mother, Mrs. Ralph Moxley, will serve supper on July 18.

Mrs. Steele R. Sellers and her daughter - in - law Mrs. Steele L. Sellers are writing invitations for a tea on July 20.

REMEMBERING the groom are the Richard J. Corkerys, who plan a dinner party and "groom" shower on June 23. Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Ensign will entertain for the young couple in their Franklin home on July 15.

While an old-fashioned gathering of the clans, hostessed by Anniejane's aunt, Mrs. A. H. Woodley, and her two daughters, Mrs. R. E. LeAnderson and Mrs. Richard Hardenbergh, is set for the 9 of July at Rotunda Inn.

AFTER A WEEK of final preparations and rest, sisters of the bridal party and other guests at Oakland Hills Country Club will hold the spinster dinner at Oakland Hills Country Club. Among the guests will be two bridesmaids from Shilpert, from Missouri and Marlene Goddington from Illinois.

Mrs. Phillip Jacobus, sister of the groom-to-be, will be on hand from Grand Rapids for this party and to serve as one of Anniejane's attendants. Competing for the job of bridesmaids are Myrna Moxley, Mary Burkman and Carol Adams. Cynthia Adams will serve as Anniejane's maid of honor.

ON JULY 28, Dr. and Mrs. W. Glen Harris will entertain the bridal party and other guests at Orchard Lake Country Club for the rehearsal dinner.

The day of the wedding will find the bride and her attendants at brunch in the home of Mrs. Harry Altick, with other out-of-town visitors lunching with the William Milligans of Fairfax Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Adams, parents of the bride, plan a reception in the church following the ceremony and a buffet supper in their home, so relatives may bid the bride and groom farewell.

GOP Gals Meet

The Beverly Bingham Franklin Republican Women's Club met recently to hear a discussion on the Kennedy bill for financing education.

Delta Gamma Alums Honor Area Students

Collegiate members of the Birmingham - Royal Oak area were honored by Delta Gamma alumnae at the group's annual picnic and meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. John Mann, Royal Oak.

Delta Gamma Board members were co-hostesses for the final event of the season.

AMONG Birmingham collegians attending were Barbara Breien, a student at Wittenberg University; Prindle Anders and Patricia Johnson, Albion College; University of Michigan coeds Sue Ganter, Francis VanMauer and Sue McNeil.

From Bloomfield came Carol Green, University of Michigan; and Val French, a Cornell University student.

Also attending the dinner meeting were Lenore Hobbs of Lathrup, from Michigan State University; and Albion Delta Gammas Patricia Catell, Lathrup and Susan Fead, Foxcroft.

Patricia Ann Ackerman Weds Donald Campbell

Patricia Ann Ackerman became the wife of Donald S. Campbell June 10 in a double-ring evening ceremony at the First Baptist Church of Royal Oak. The Rev. Durwood L. Smith officiated.

The bride, who makes her home with Mrs. James C. Hobbs, 1611 Holland, Birmingham, was given in marriage by Edward Barrington.

SHE APPROACHED the altar in a gown of white chantilly lace with sequin and pearls accenting the bouffant skirt. A crystal crown caught her veil. She carried white roses and carnations.

Joanne Green of Washington, D.C., sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Rolinda Reese and Sue Grissom were bridesmaids. They were dressed in gowns of powder blue nylon. A large satin rose accented the back of the dresses. They carried pink carnations with satin leaves and ivy.

MRS. DONALD S. CAMPBELL

JAMES MILEWSKI stood as best man and ushers were N. K. Upton and Tom Upton.

Mrs. Hobbs chose a beige linen dress with a silk jacket for Patricia's wedding. Mother of the bridegroom selected an aqua silk dress with white accessories.

Wright-Davey Troth Told

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright, 315 Pilgrim, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to John G. Davey of Royal Oak.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Kingswood and attended Michigan State University.

Her fiance is the son of Edward F. Davey of London, England.

A summer wedding is planned.

Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR

Odetta forgot to wind her watch. But the Arts Festival show went on, even if the star was an hour late. Five local lads who were on duty as ushers for the opening night in the dome were pressed onto the stage for entertainment purposes (they just happened to bring their guitars). The audience loved them. Bill Purdy, Hap Dunn, Steve Collister, Fred and Will Coffin were a delight and didn't run out of repetoire until Odetta made her entrance.

Sardine Sandwiches?

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kellerman entertained 200 guests at cocktails after the National Open last week. In a TRAILER, yet. Their new home facing the Oakland Hills course is not completed and they are waiting it out at the site in a very deluxe mobile home

Bon Trip

Linda Sancrant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sancrant, entertained some of her Barnum junior high classmates last week at a luncheon at the Women's City Club. Guest of honor was Natalie Moser who is leaving soon to make her home in Buenos Aires with her parents. Among those present were Linda Hoyt, Carol Hollingshead, Nancy Tallman and Kate Klarr.

Buzzin' Cousin?

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lincoln Jewett of Washington, D. C., eager to log some hours now that hey have learned to fly, chartered a plane for a weekend visit with the Garvin Bawdens. Keil known in golfing circles around Washington, Mrs. Jewett was particularly anxious to watch the Open.

Patio and Pool

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coffin entertained at brunch last week. Guests included some of the poetry readers who will do their favorites tonight in the dome, Mrs. Willys Wagner, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. John Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Sy. Thingstad, Mr. Harold Hartley, Mrs. R. Anderson, Jim Schneider, Mrs. William Candler and Mrs. W. W. Chao.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. DeVliege are becoming luau experts. They gain first hand experience on location at their co-op apartment in Hawaii. Last week they brough the luau to Bloomfield Hills when they entertained friends at their home.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Selby will make their home in LaJolla, Calif. The bride was the former Martha McClintock Moody. They were married in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James I. McClintock last Saturday. George Huebner was best man and Mrs. Marrill Ford came from Aspen to attend her sister.

Miss Leah Bleazby attended her 50th reunion at Wellesley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Ball and their son, Fred, are touring Spain and Majorca with the Ball's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Olson Jr. Their itinerary also includes a trip to the Olson's home in Tripoli, Libya and a stop over in Switzerland.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Graham visited the W. T. Cushings at Glen Lake last weekend.

Don't forget "Jazz in Suburbia" tomorrow and Saturday nights in the done at Shain Park. The big top is aircooled this year and the tent is well bolted down so the musicians can't possibly raise the roof.

Blind pianist Bess Bonnier and her trio will be here Friday, also Jack Brokensbire on the vibes and J. C. Heard on the skins (a drummer boy). The star list goes on and on—and it's practically a civic "must" to be among those present. Don't be a no show, Daddy-O.
