Pair Plan Organ Series By Noted French Artist

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Marriott, 6840 E. Dartmoor, Birmingham, are serving on a committee for an organ dedication concert series by Marcel Dupre of Paris, France.

Mr. Marriott, organist and choirmaster at Central Methodist Church in Detroit, is in charge of program and arrangements for the series of four concerts and recitals at Central Methodist.

Acclaimed by many as "the world's greatest living organist," Mr. Dupre will perform at 8 p.m. on Oct.5, 11, 15 and 17.

* * *

THE DEDICATION concerts will climax Central Methodist's two-year organ rebuilding program. The organ, which has served the church for 46 years, has been almost entirely rebuilt at a cost of $76,500.

In his opening performance Dupre will be assisted by members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and Central Methodist Church choir and soloists. In addition to selections by Bach, Cesar Frank and Daquin, the Oct. 8 program will feature Dupre's own work "De Profundis."

The distinguished artist is coming directly from Paris to Detroit at the invitation of Central Methodist Church for the express purpose of playing the organ dedication concert series. This will be his only appearance in the United States at this time.

* * *

DUPRE'S LAST appearance in Detroit was made for the dedication recital of the Ford Auditorium organ in 1957. Although it was announced that his 1957 trip would mark his farewell appearance in this country, he accepted Central Methodist's invitation for the coming series.

Dupre's acceptance doubtless was partially based on his personal and longtime friendship with his former pupil, Frederick L. Marriott.

Many honors have been bestowed on Dupre, his most recent being selection as president of the Academy of Fine Arts of France in 1961. He is also president of the National Committee of Musicians UNESCO and holder of the coveted Grand Prix de Rome for Music Compositions, the Premiere Prix pour Piano, the Premiere Prix d'Orgue and the Premiere Prix de Fugue.

TICKETS FOR the series are available at Central Methodist Church and the Ford Auditorium box office.
