Broomfield to Seek Re-Election to Office

Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) announced today he will seek a fourth term in the House of Representatives.

Broomfield, who represents one of the largest Congressional districts in the nation, said he will seek to "match Federal words with deeds, both at home and abroad" in a program to bolster the nation's economic growth and strengthen its position in the world.

"Too often, we have had fine words and few deeds from Washington," said Broomfield. "I intend to continue my efforts to see that our nation moves ahead in an orderly and efficient manner, without sacrificing the freedom of our citizens to make their own personal decisions on how they will live their lives."

* * *

BROOMFIELD, a veteran of 14 years in both state and national government, is a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and serves on Far East and National Security subcommittees.

He was a prime mover in the retention of a "watch dog" over foreign aid expenditures and projects and his proposal for sound planning of foreign aid projects has been accepted by the Kennedy Administration as "most valuable."

He is U. S. delegate to interparliamentarians' conferences to Canada, Mexico, France and Great Britain.

Broomfield said that world peace depends upon "a strong, vital America which will follow its principles of freedom and self-determination in its dealings with the rest of the world."

* * *

HE SAID most of our nation's failures abroad "can be traced to abandonment of these principles in the name of expediency."

"We don't want government by crisis," he said. "We should look ahead to the long pull and act accordingly."

Prior to his election to Congress in 1956, Broomfield served in both the Michigan House of Representatives and the state Senate. He was the youngest speaker pro tem of the House in Michigan history.

Born in Royal Oak in 1922, he is a life-long resident of Oakland County. He is the son of Dr. S. C. Broomfield of Royal Oak and the late Mrs. Broomfield. He and his wife, Jane, have three daughters.

* * *

HE HAS TOURED Oakland County yearly in a unique "travelling Congressional office" so that he could talk directly with his constituents on problems with the federal government.

"There is only one real way to be a true representative of the sent, listen to them, consider them people," said Broomfield. "That is and act in the best interests of to seek the views of those I repre- our Nation."
