West Bloomfield Board Acts On Sewer Projects

WEST BLOOMFIELD — Sewer development in West Bloomfield Township went forward last week with action on two projects.

At a special board meeting, a resolution was passed to seek aid in financing the Sylvan Manor arm of the Farmington Interceptor through a federal grant. The federal program of assistance to capital improvements is under the U. S. Housing and Home Financing Agency.

At its regular board meeting, the township passed resolutions one and two toward establishment of Pine Lake sewer district, number two.

A public hearing on necessity for Pine Lake sewer was set for 7:30 p.m., Nov. 14. The sewer will serve both Pine Lake Country Club and Rotunda Inn.

Proper fit
When choosing an alley ball, you should be sure that you have a proper fit. A proper fit insures you against dropping the ball and discomfort. It also helps curb blisters.
There are two specifics to watch when fitting a ball: finger holes and thumb hole.
The finger holes are correct for you when the thumb is placed in the thumb hole and the middle joint of the middle finger is over the inner edge of finger hole.
Thumb hole is correct when the thumb fits neither too tightly nor too loosely.

Council Nixes Night Operation Of Bulldozers

LATHRUP—A request by Ronald C. Seeley of the Louis Garavaglia Construction firm, for "another chance" to try working his trucks and bulldozers quietly at night on a landfill operate brought a polite but firm "No" from the council Monday.

Mayor Richard N. Cogger said that work on the landfill, on the property of the Charles D. Kelleys near the home of E. W. Mallon, 18184 Kilbirnie, was causing residents to lose sleep. Cogger said that while the work would undoubtedly take longer using only daylight hours, he would "prefer to see the work continue until after Christmas and the Lathrup residents get some sleep".

The landfill operations will continue on the west side of Southfield, north of 10½ Mile Road while the widening of Southfield road continues.

Laud Township's Auxiliary Police For Civil Service

WEST BLOOMFIELD — The auxiliary policemen who serve West Bloomfield township were commended by the township board at their meeting last week.

Cited for augmenting the township police force without any recompense were Claude Mercer, Harold Chapman, Roscoe Hunt, Leon Kentfield, Edward Ladwig, Martin LaChance, Whitney Martin and Thomas Papez. Victor Mitter, an auxiliary policeman until his death early this year, was also named in the resolution.

FIX-IT TIP

Marble Stains
An oil stain can be removed from marble by putting a white blotter soaked in lighter fluid over the spot and leaving it until the blotter is dry. Repeat the treatment until the stain has been removed.
