Local Drive Success

George O. Cutter, 618 Overhill Road, Birmingham, has led the Detroit-area Bowdoin College Capital Campaign to within 95% of its goal.

The nationwide drive, which has passed the $6.3 million mark on its way to a $10 million goal, is designed to help enrich Bowdoin's academic program and improve its physical plant, located in Brunswick, Maine.

Team

the other tackle, was a mainstay in the Crane line throughout the season.

Guard could be the strongest spot on the Second Team with Larry Judd of Groves and Larry Zidar of West Bloomfield. Both players were selected to their All-League teams for the year.

Center Lee DeGalen of Country Day performed well throughout the year for the Yellowjackets. He was an honorable mention from last season.

The backfield would drive any line crazy. Bill Stephenson of Groves came into his own this year as one of the best signal-callers in the area. Largely through his fine performances did the Falcons finish 6-1-1.

AT THE halfback slots are Bloomfield's Jay Shimmick and Southfield's Jim Larson. Shimmick, a powerful runner, led the Barons team in scoring for the year. Blue Jay Jim Larson possesses tremendous breakaway speed and was a constant offensive threat.

Country Day's fine junior fullback, Jon Marks, nailed down his position. A tower of strength on defense as well, Marks accounted for many tackles. His jarring blows resulted in frequent enemy fumbles.

Buck Fever

Two area deer hunters were among the many that bagged bucks the first weekend of the state-wide deer season.

Robert Spinning, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Spinning, of 857 Waddington, Birmingham, shot a young, four-point buck Sunday morning north of Lapeer.

He was hunting with his father at the time. The deer weighed 130 pounds.

Virgil E. LaMarre, of 237 Tilbury, Bloomfield Township, and an ad executive at McManus, John and Adams, dropped a big buck at 8:30 a.m. Sunday.

HUNTING northeast of Grayling, LaMarre shot a six-pointer that was estimated at 190 pounds. The whitetail had a 16-inch spread.

How about other area deer hunters? Did you get your deer or know someone else in the area that was fortunate enough to contact "buck fever?"

Call or write The Birmingham Eccentric, Sports Editor, 1225 Bowers, Birmingham. Phone number is MI 4-1100.

Tell us the weight of the buck, how many points, when and where shot, and we will be happy to print your name among the local hunters who have developed "Buck Fever."

Holy Name School Wins N. Suburban CYO League Title

Holy Name School won the CYO Suburban football championship with a 5-1-1 record to wrap up their second title in two years.

The school's 14-6 loss to St. James earlier this season was the first defeat for coach Paul Frendo's team in the last two campaigns.

Fullback Tim Manganello was selected as the team's most valuable player. He scored 42 points in seven league games to lead the team. He will attend Brother Rice next year.

Detroit Lions rookie fullback Nick Ryder and All-Pro tackle Roger Brown hail from the same home town, Nyack, N. Y.
