JAMES J. FIELDING

Appointment Announced by Cunningham's

James J. Fielding, with a background of more than 23 years in the wholesale and retail drug business, has been named vice president and director of marketing, Cunningham Drug Stores, Inc., it is announced by Ray A. Shapero, company president.

Fielding, 40, had previously occupied the post of sales promotion manager for Cunningham, one of the nation's largest operators of retail chain drug stores, which has a branch in Birmingham at Woodward and Maple.

He began his career in the drug business as a youth in 1939 when employed as a part-time, nights and weekends IBM operator for the accounting department of McKesson Laboratories, division of McKesson & Robbins, at Fairfield, Conn., a suburb of Bridgeport, his native city.

AFTER GRADUATION from high school he continued as a full-time employee of McKesson until early 1942 when he enlisted in the Air Force.

As a first lieutenant and pilot of a Liberator bomber he served in the Pacific Theatre until 1945, with award of the Silver Star.

Following discharge, he entered Fordham University from which he graduated in 1949 as an accounting major.

He then rejoined McKesson & Robbins, in the sales department, where he rose in successive steps to director of chain store sales.

In December of 1960 he was named vice president and merchandising manager. He resigned the post to join the Cunningham organization the following year.

FIELDING was married in 1949 to the former Nancy Moss Fray. They reside in Grosse Pointe Park, with their seven children: Michele, 12; James II, 11; Philip, 10; Brian, 9; Barry, 6; Shawn, 5; and Christopher, 4.

Fielding is president of the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre and has served as a director of the All America Little Football League.

Three Cadets Encamped at Schilling AFB

Participating in the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps summer encampment at Schilling AFB, Kan., are three cadets from Birmingham.

They are Kenneth R. Hanson, George R. Davis and Joseph F. Page III, observing and taking an active part in various phases of base operations during the encampment period.

Hanson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Hanson, 6863 Candlewood Terrace. He is a graduate of Dearborn High School and is now a member of the AFROTC program at Capital University, Columbus, Ohio.

DAVIS, SON of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Roth, 144 Fairfax, is enrolled in the AFROTC program at Denison University, Granville, Ohio. He belongs to Sigma Alpha Epsilon and was graduated from Hinsdale (Ill.) Township High School.

Page, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Page, Sr., 888 Waddington, is a member of the AFROTC program at Princeton University.

The men will be eligible for appointment as Air Force second lieutenant upon graduation from college.

Five-year-old To Light Up Torch Drive

Nancy Dykstra of Grosse Pointe Farms, who will be five years old Aug. 24, has been named as "torchlighter" for the 15th annual Torch Drive, Oct 15 through Nov. 7.

The torchlighter is receiving treatment at Children's Hospital, a Torch Drive service, where 33 Birmingham and two Bloomfield Hills youngsters were patients during the last year.

Nancy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dykstra, was chosen to represent the tens of thousands of persons of all ages who are benefitted by the annual "give once for all" fund-raising campaign.

SHE HAS BEEN an out-patient at the hospital's Physical Therapy Clinic since March, 1960.

When she presses the button which sets a flame roaring from the top of the 54-foot torch at the foot of Woodward Avenue in downtown Detroit the night of Oct. 15, Nancy will be a universal symbol of the drive.

She will appear on all campaign literature and advertisements, in the campaign films and on television.

Cadet in Training At ROTC Camp

Cadet Nicholas C. Steen, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Steen, 785 Hickory Grove road, Bloomfield Hills, is scheduled to complete six weeks of training at the Reserve Officer Training Corps summer camp at Fort Riley, Kan, July 26.

During the encampment, Cadet Steen and other future Army officers receive intensive infantry field training under supervision of combat experienced officers and non-commissioned officers.

He is active in the ROTC program at Michigan State University in East Lansing. Steen was graduated from Bloomfield Hills High School in 1960.

Educator Retires From Port Huron

Howard D. Crull, former teacher and administrator in Birmingham, has retired after 22 years as superintendent of the Port Huron Area Public Schools.

A testimonial dinner in honor of Crull and his wife, Ann, was attended by nearly 600 persons recently at Port Huron High School.

Sophomore Studies At Arts Workshop

A Birmingham boy is among 160 high school students from 38 Michigan cities and four other states studying at Olivet College's first annual Fine Arts Workshop.

He is Robert Dobson, sophomore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobson, Sr., 31410 Evergreen, who is enrolled in the creative writing class.

Training Recruits

Capt. Edwin R. Labuz, 1878 Washington, Birmingham, is the operations coordinator for the 329th Regiment of the 70th Division, reserve unit, which has been training recruits at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Swap that crabgrass for a better lawn

With just one application of fast-acting CLOUT,* bring the march of crabgrass across your lawn to a dead stop.

Within a week, you can sow Scotts seed to repair damage already done. (Don't even remove the dead crabgrass. It makes a good lodging for seed.) Apply TURF BUILDER* on the same day you seed, and you assure new grass of the balanced diet it needs to thrive.

Do all three jobs confidently and easily with the accurate Scotts Spreader. Scotts guarantees your results!
