EXECUTIVE SALESMEN

CAN YOU QUALIFY FOR A job too big for the average salesman? If you can, you will also qualify for an income bigger than the average salesman dreams of.

For over 115 years, our company has been preventing financial disaster to individuals, businesses and industry, unbroken dividend record for the last 95 years, international operations; unbeatably competitive; high closing ratios.

We need a few more Detroit metropolitan area representatives, but it is the exceptional man we want; we want those who are capable of earning at least $12,000 to $15,000 in their first year, moving up from there, and to such men we offer, not only a chance to make money on straight commission, in what we in this business believe is the only selling job a good salesman should settle for, but we also offer a serious opportunity for advancement to management, our growth plans require rapid executive development; there is no existing labor pool trained in our unique method of creative selling procedures.

Let's face it. Many salesmen never reach their potential earning peak for lack of personalized sales leadership. Individualized training and knowing leadership make most top salesmen. We give it. We'll show you our methods and our tax returns. You'll be the judge.

Personally negotiated starting guarantee of $125 to $200 per week will be limit on annual earnings through our new and renewal contracts signed by the company's top officers and executives as well as by you. J. E., one of our top men, earned over $60,000 last year.

A contract guarantees you territory, commissions and renewals; financing plan to start qualified men fast includes provision for salaried and expense paid home office training, profitable joint field work with the man personally responsible for your success with all commissions on joint sales going to you, plus continuous training and supervision; funded guaranteed retirement plan. "Quick Start" guaranteed contracts; first year production bonuses enabled J. E. to earn $15,000 over regular commission earnings. Group life, health and accident benefits and stock purchase plan available.

Maturity, good character, intellectual vigor, desire to grow and teachability more important than age. Best age 30 and over. College not required; willingness to work and study, to acquire college-level professional status, under our guidance at our expense, while building earnings in the meantime are these are essential. The screening is tough but we can't tell you how you can qualify by experience or potential and if you want to know more, phone Thursday, or Friday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Interview arranged for your convenience.
