

ROYAL GAN BEMERSONS. The M. E. church will give their entertainment the following Monday night. The young people had a party last Friday night at Mrs. Benjamin's and had a pleasant time. J. W. Wells leaves for New Hudson this week. Sorry to lose a good citizen.

Tom Treasurer's wife is prepared to receive taxes. C. M. Fay is on the sick list. A couple of pedagogues went to Detroit last week to see "Fidelity" and happened when the Cannon Welled on young man while he was doing the "hang on the wall" act. Warren Burman has put up a neat home here.

The hand count was a success. L. Stone is having his heels repaired so lay, etc. can be weighed correctly.

THE DROP IN QUININE. Cheaper to Druggists but No Less to Consumers. Quinine was the subject of a conversation in the editorial columns of the Indianapolis Journal.

Henry Becker is fixing up our wood pile in great shape. Miss Coon Robinson is getting better under the treatment of Woodruff's treatment. Our old friend Campbell has moved back on his farm south of the Beaver.

What we don't like is that quinine costs just as much as ever, notwithstanding the "whoopsie" given to it. In the first place, it doesn't work a dozen times as fast as it used to.

WARREN WAFFLES. C. Pearson, while boring a well for 110 feet in sufficient quantity if it only holds out for a few days.

What is the best of you? I am glad to give you away Will, even if you get left. Miss Emma Hayes has been on the sick list for the last two weeks.

THE SUTURE OF THE WILSON BOYS. This is some talk of the Wilson boys putting up a feed mill for Mr. Cole.

SOUTHERN SETTING. The R. P. and U. P. will give a new entertainment of recitations and songs in connection with their Christmas tree on week from Friday night.

STEWED WOOD FOR FOOD. We have all had our sympathies aroused by statements that these people (the natives of northern Siberia) are often during famines compelled to resort to wood for food.

BLOOMFIELD NEWS. Lovell Gillespie and family moved back from Grand Rapids last week. James Tackels will move to Detroit in a few days.

PERSONAL. Mr. N. H. Frohman of Mobile, Ala., writes that King's New Discovery Consumption, having used it for a severe case of consumption, he had entirely cured.
