

JIM POULDER'S MISTAKE

A Pleasant Story of New Jersey Life

A pleasant, rainy day in May. The riders of the railway car were open. There was a breeze stirring, and though a cloud of dust was blown in, it was blown down, with the exception of a few particles which managed to rest on the clothes of the passengers, or burrowed for its own safety in their ears or nostrils.

"Jim!" called the young girl; but Jim's quick eye caught her before she could get a word more than "Jim!" and he turned to her with a smile. "You are a quick girl, aren't you?" replied her father, in the same tone.

"Yes, sir," returned the young girl, "I know the judge better than you do, and I know the law better than you do. I have two students in my office. What they'll never make a great success of, but they'll be able to get on all right."

"Why not?" he might be asked. "Why not?" he might be asked. "Why not?" he might be asked. "Why not?" he might be asked. "Why not?" he might be asked.

"You know more of selling groceries than I do," said the young man. "Not a bit more, but you see, I am paid something there while I learn."

"You're right, sir. I have no capital, and know nothing of it." "You know more of selling groceries than I do," said the young man.

"I never make mistakes, Frank Bolling," replied the other. "I dare say you make your father's mistakes, but I dare say you make your own."

"Excuse me, sir, but didn't your friend who has left say that his name was James Poulter?" "That's his name, sir," replied the young man.

"That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man.

"That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man.

"That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man.

"That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man. "That's his name, sir," replied the young man.

Backsaw at Sharon farm

By ROBERT WILSON

The snow had been falling all day long. Early Thursday morning, when the sun had just begun to show, a backsaw at Sharon farm.

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

"You heard from him at Fortson, Missouri. He was made a lieutenant at Yorkburg; he was a long campaigner."

How They Fall Behind

By J. P. HARRIS

The carriage which was made especially for the purpose of the trip to the north, in the month of the spring and winter.

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

WARD OF

By J. P. HARRIS

The carriage which was made especially for the purpose of the trip to the north, in the month of the spring and winter.

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

"An industrial machine recently sold for twenty-five dollars which has been used in the manufacture of the steel in the north, in the month of the spring and winter."

Advertisement for 'DROPS' medicine, featuring 'TANSILS' and 'PUNCH' brands. Text includes 'DROPS TREATED FREE' and 'NORTHERN PACIFIC LOW PRICE RAILROAD LINES'.