

DETROIT, GRAND HAVEN & MILWAUKEE RAILWAY.

Table with 2 columns: Going West, Going East. Lists fares for various routes like Marquette Express, Grand Rapids, etc.

F. BLAKESLEE. Showing more new novelties in line of Dry-goods than any house in town...

PRICES. We offer the best selection of Striped, Plaid and Plain Velveteens.

WE ARE HEADQUARTERS. For Yassar Flannels, Dress Flannels, Cotton Flannels, etc.

FALL STYLES. Of the celebrated Broadcloth Dress Patterns and at very LOW PRICES.

WE HANDLE A FINE ASSORTMENT OF Vassar, Midnight, Saxony, Spanish, German, etc.

JERSEY. Woolen Blankets. From $1.50 to $5.

NEW, FRESH AND ATTRACTIVE AT F. BLAKESLEE'S.

Wants, Lost, Found, etc. A notice regarding a lost pocket watch.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

FOR SALE. Valuable piece of city property at 1000 Michigan St.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

We are putting in an elegant line of new and desirable Holiday novelties which we shall sell cheaper than you have ever seen them sold.

Books, Photograph Albums, Autograph and Scrap Albums, Box Papers, Perfume Cases, etc.

CHINA TEA SETS.

Cups and Saucers, Mugs, Plates, Pitchers, and Novelties in Decorated Ware.

Beautiful New Glass-Ware, Gloves & Mittens.

Large Line of DOLLS in Bisque, China, Cloth and Wax. Dirt Cheap. Toys for the Boys, Girls and Babies.

LOOK at our stock Before You Buy.

Come and See. Come and Buy.

J. R. CORSON. MASONIC BLOCK.

OUR NEW Fall and Winter Stock OF DRY GOODS.

Groceries, Boots and Shoes is now on exhibition.

Special attention is also called to our Dress Goods, Trimmings, Velvets, Ribbons, Hosiery, Gloves, Underwear, Fancy Goods and Notions.

We also have an immense new line of Boots and Shoes for Men's, Ladies' and Children's wear.

Dry Goods! Groceries!

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

Lonolada Cotton... 35c

HOME NOTES.

PERPETUAL NOTICE. You will notice notice date after you see on paper and newspaper...

Little drops of printer's ink, A little type displayed, Will all their big parade.

Here's your blue cross! How is this for an open winter? Monitor, Mich. has a "pumping oil well."

The rain came at last and everybody rejoiced. Read up - farm to rent on acres in cheap location.

South Lyons' gas well is down 700 feet. No gas yet.

You ought to go in and crank off a turn for one of those dollar music boxes at White & Mitchell's.

Did Gates of Sasabaw show his legs under table twice last week and we wish he would do so more.

We do not promise to give old habits to the boy who has and today good me; but I promise them the worth of their money, as well as good work, which is far better.

L. Corey of Deatur, Alabama, sends us circulars and papers describing the phenomenal growth and gigantic business of the city of Birmingham since February last, and the statements sent to be beyond belief.

The greatest of all buildings is a $400,000 one to be completed in 1888.

M. K. Taylor had a new run on trial at his Toy fountain farm. It was a hydraulic creature and it didn't keep it from to do - wetter he kept it or not.

Although a very sheep affair, they couldn't pull the wool over the eyes of the doughty Fountain Farm proprietor. Ewe know how it differs.

A few days ago one of the officers of the Salvation Army found a basket on the doorstep at headquarters. With a note attached and saying "The Lord will provide," she took it in. It contained a rag doll with these inscriptions: "I'm an orphan, take me in; my mother's gone crazy, oh, My! (South Lyon Ex-aminer.)"

Although our village citizens did not turn out very well at the oyster supper given by the Improvement Society last Monday night it was not a failure, and there was an interesting program.

"Among the Breakers," and are receiving the same which they expect to present at Liberty Hall in the near future.

Holiday goods are arriving daily at Whitcomb & Mitchell's.

There is no use of talking, anarchy must go - no room for it in this great, great country. Her most had a fair trial by her own selection and found guilty. Good! let the work go on.

Clark Peersall and family have gone to St. Jordan and by last time are safely settled in their new home. We wish them a beautiful prosperity in their location and may they never regret their removal from our midst.

Birmingham now sends quite a delegation of business men to Detroit every morning who return home the same night. There are Messrs. Slade, Akin, Clark, Alexander, Taylor and Misses Uiter and Drake to hear from.

There was a surprise party last Friday night in honor of J. Arthur and Emma. The young ladies brought the cakes and the young men brought the oysters and gave Ed other 100 for his services. They all had a good time.

G. H. Turk, the live clothes of this week, has a change of ad. This week look over carefully and when in Paris visit his emporium of fashion and see if you cannot receive what you want in the line of clothing. We know you will for his stock is simply wonderful.

John E. Helt, of South Lyon, drove late town last Sunday evening and caught the entire Methodist choir and took them to Royal Oak, where they sang a choice selection of songs to the delight of the Royal Oakers and doing great credit to themselves.

Prof. Norton is the champion band teacher of Michigan. He has a class for every night in the week but one and he expects to fill that by teaching the Big River band. Really the boys could do no better than to employ Prof. Norton if they wish to play quickly and nicely.

It is too bad that the Birmingham Improvement society met with no success at their oyster supper Monday night. As all the money they were raising for the people makes good for the benefit of the people, it seems that their efforts ought to be better appreciated.

Our blue pencil arrived this morning from Chicago by telegraph. You should see the beautiful program and illustrations and its beautiful sales base. Do you get "out" to color on this new method now.

Wanted: A good new milch cow. Inquire at the Cooper farm.

A. W. Campbell's in Royal Oak they have struck a steady fire of gas and it is considered to be a reliable discovery. It is hoped that Detroit capitalists will take hold of the well and send out its true worth. Oil for gas and fire and light. If it has to be piped from Royal Oak.

Richard Hatch has returned from his long western trip. His trip, as a business venture, exceeded his fondest dreams. He has the most beautiful stock of wild west yarns. During his absence he learned a new trade, that of sawing off cows' horns, a practice much observed by farmers in Illinois and Iowa.

F. R. Lamb, township treasurer of Troy, will be at the store of Whitehead & Mitchell in Birmingham every Saturday in December, except on December 8, to receive taxes, and at Troy Corners in Frank Cutting's store on Thursdays, except December 1. At home in Big Beaver on the 2nd.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Zion Episcopal church, Postoffice, will hold a Bazaar at Clinton Hall on the afternoons and evenings of Dec. 15, 16, and 17, the proceeds to be applied towards the completion of the repairs of the church. All are requested to come and help in a good cause.

Bert Collier, the boy who came so near being killed by the discharge of a shotgun on Thanksgiving day, is recovering from his injuries, and will eventually have the sight of his eyes and aside from the terrible shock to his nervous system and some scars he will soon be as good as new.

I do not promise to give old habits to the boy who has and today good me; but I promise them the worth of their money, as well as good work, which is far better.

L. Corey of Deatur, Alabama, sends us circulars and papers describing the phenomenal growth and gigantic business of the city of Birmingham since February last, and the statements sent to be beyond belief.

The greatest of all buildings is a $400,000 one to be completed in 1888.

M. K. Taylor had a new run on trial at his Toy fountain farm. It was a hydraulic creature and it didn't keep it from to do - wetter he kept it or not.

Although a very sheep affair, they couldn't pull the wool over the eyes of the doughty Fountain Farm proprietor. Ewe know how it differs.

A few days ago one of the officers of the Salvation Army found a basket on the doorstep at headquarters. With a note attached and saying "The Lord will provide," she took it in. It contained a rag doll with these inscriptions: "I'm an orphan, take me in; my mother's gone crazy, oh, My! (South Lyon Ex-aminer.)"

Although our village citizens did not turn out very well at the oyster supper given by the Improvement Society last Monday night it was not a failure, and there was an interesting program.

"Among the Breakers," and are receiving the same which they expect to present at Liberty Hall in the near future.

Holiday goods are arriving daily at Whitcomb & Mitchell's.

There is no use of talking, anarchy must go - no room for it in this great, great country. Her most had a fair trial by her own selection and found guilty. Good! let the work go on.

Clark Peersall and family have gone to St. Jordan and by last time are safely settled in their new home. We wish them a beautiful prosperity in their location and may they never regret their removal from our midst.

Birmingham now sends quite a delegation of business men to Detroit every morning who return home the same night. There are Messrs. Slade, Akin, Clark, Alexander, Taylor and Misses Uiter and Drake to hear from.

There was a surprise party last Friday night in honor of J. Arthur and Emma. The young ladies brought the cakes and the young men brought the oysters and gave Ed other 100 for his services. They all had a good time.

G. H. Turk, the live clothes of this week, has a change of ad. This week look over carefully and when in Paris visit his emporium of fashion and see if you cannot receive what you want in the line of clothing. We know you will for his stock is simply wonderful.

John E. Helt, of South Lyon, drove late town last Sunday evening and caught the entire Methodist choir and took them to Royal Oak, where they sang a choice selection of songs to the delight of the Royal Oakers and doing great credit to themselves.

Prof. Norton is the champion band teacher of Michigan. He has a class for every night in the week but one and he expects to fill that by teaching the Big River band. Really the boys could do no better than to employ Prof. Norton if they wish to play quickly and nicely.

It is too bad that the Birmingham Improvement society met with no success at their oyster supper Monday night. As all the money they were raising for the people makes good for the benefit of the people, it seems that their efforts ought to be better appreciated.

Our blue pencil arrived this morning from Chicago by telegraph. You should see the beautiful program and illustrations and its beautiful sales base. Do you get "out" to color on this new method now.

Wanted: A good new milch cow. Inquire at the Cooper farm.

A. W. Campbell's in Royal Oak they have struck a steady fire of gas and it is considered to be a reliable discovery. It is hoped that Detroit capitalists will take hold of the well and send out its true worth. Oil for gas and fire and light. If it has to be piped from Royal Oak.

Richard Hatch has returned from his long western trip. His trip, as a business venture, exceeded his fondest dreams. He has the most beautiful stock of wild west yarns. During his absence he learned a new trade, that of sawing off cows' horns, a practice much observed by farmers in Illinois and Iowa.

F. R. Lamb, township treasurer of Troy, will be at the store of Whitehead & Mitchell in Birmingham every Saturday in December, except on December 8, to receive taxes, and at Troy Corners in Frank Cutting's store on Thursdays, except December 1. At home in Big Beaver on the 2nd.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Zion Episcopal church, Postoffice, will hold a Bazaar at Clinton Hall on the afternoons and evenings of Dec. 15, 16, and 17, the proceeds to be applied towards the completion of the repairs of the church. All are requested to come and help in a good cause.

Bert Collier, the boy who came so near being killed by the discharge of a shotgun on Thanksgiving day, is recovering from his injuries, and will eventually have the sight of his eyes and aside from the terrible shock to his nervous system and some scars he will soon be as good as new.

I do not promise to give old habits to the boy who has and today good me; but I promise them the worth of their money, as well as good work, which is far better.

L. Corey of Deatur, Alabama, sends us circulars and papers describing the phenomenal growth and gigantic business of the city of Birmingham since February last, and the statements sent to be beyond belief.

The greatest of all buildings is a $400,000 one to be completed in 1888.

M. K. Taylor had a new run on trial at his Toy fountain farm. It was a hydraulic creature and it didn't keep it from to do - wetter he kept it or not.

Although a very sheep affair, they couldn't pull the wool over the eyes of the doughty Fountain Farm proprietor. Ewe know how it differs.

A few days ago one of the officers of the Salvation Army found a basket on the doorstep at headquarters. With a note attached and saying "The Lord will provide," she took it in. It contained a rag doll with these inscriptions: "I'm an orphan, take me in; my mother's gone crazy, oh, My! (South Lyon Ex-aminer.)"

Although our village citizens did not turn out very well at the oyster supper given by the Improvement Society last Monday night it was not a failure, and there was an interesting program.

"Among the Breakers," and are receiving the same which they expect to present at Liberty Hall in the near future.

Holiday goods are arriving daily at Whitcomb & Mitchell's.

There is no use of talking, anarchy must go - no room for it in this great, great country. Her most had a fair trial by her own selection and found guilty. Good! let the work go on.

Clark Peersall and family have gone to St. Jordan and by last time are safely settled in their new home. We wish them a beautiful prosperity in their location and may they never regret their removal from our midst.

Birmingham now sends quite a delegation of business men to Detroit every morning who return home the same night. There are Messrs. Slade, Akin, Clark, Alexander, Taylor and Misses Uiter and Drake to hear from.

There was a surprise party last Friday night in honor of J. Arthur and Emma. The young ladies brought the cakes and the young men brought the oysters and gave Ed other 100 for his services. They all had a good time.

G. H. Turk, the live clothes of this week, has a change of ad. This week look over carefully and when in Paris visit his emporium of fashion and see if you cannot receive what you want in the line of clothing. We know you will for his stock is simply wonderful.

John E. Helt, of South Lyon, drove late town last Sunday evening and caught the entire Methodist choir and took them to Royal Oak, where they sang a choice selection of songs to the delight of the Royal Oakers and doing great credit to themselves.

Prof. Norton is the champion band teacher of Michigan. He has a class for every night in the week but one and he expects to fill that by teaching the Big River band. Really the boys could do no better than to employ Prof. Norton if they wish to play quickly and nicely.

It is too bad that the Birmingham Improvement society met with no success at their oyster supper Monday night. As all the money they were raising for the people makes good for the benefit of the people, it seems that their efforts ought to be better appreciated.

Our blue pencil arrived this morning from Chicago by telegraph. You should see the beautiful program and illustrations and its beautiful sales base. Do you get "out" to color on this new method now.

Wanted: A good new milch cow. Inquire at the Cooper farm.

A. W. Campbell's in Royal Oak they have struck a steady fire of gas and it is considered to be a reliable discovery. It is hoped that Detroit capitalists will take hold of the well and send out its true worth. Oil for gas and fire and light. If it has to be piped from Royal Oak.

Richard Hatch has returned from his long western trip. His trip, as a business venture, exceeded his fondest dreams. He has the most beautiful stock of wild west yarns. During his absence he learned a new trade, that of sawing off cows' horns, a practice much observed by farmers in Illinois and Iowa.

F. R. Lamb, township treasurer of Troy, will be at the store of Whitehead & Mitchell in Birmingham every Saturday in December, except on December 8, to receive taxes, and at Troy Corners in Frank Cutting's store on Thursdays, except December 1. At home in Big Beaver on the 2nd.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Zion Episcopal church, Postoffice, will hold a Bazaar at Clinton Hall on the afternoons and evenings of Dec. 15, 16, and 17, the proceeds to be applied towards the completion of the repairs of the church. All are requested to come and help in a good cause.

Bert Collier, the boy who came so near being killed by the discharge of a shotgun on Thanksgiving day, is recovering from his injuries, and will eventually have the sight of his eyes and aside from the terrible shock to his nervous system and some scars he will soon be as good as new.

I do not promise to give old habits to the boy who has and today good me; but I promise them the worth of their money, as well as good work, which is far better.

L. Corey of Deatur, Alabama, sends us circulars and papers describing the phenomenal growth and gigantic business of the city of Birmingham since February last, and the statements sent to be beyond belief.

The greatest of all buildings is a $400,000 one to be completed in 1888.

M. K. Taylor had a new run on trial at his Toy fountain farm. It was a hydraulic creature and it didn't keep it from to do - wetter he kept it or not.

Although a very sheep affair, they couldn't pull the wool over the eyes of the doughty Fountain Farm proprietor. Ewe know how it differs.

A few days ago one of the officers of the Salvation Army found a basket on the doorstep at headquarters. With a note attached and saying "The Lord will provide," she took it in. It contained a rag doll with these inscriptions: "I'm an orphan, take me in; my mother's gone crazy, oh, My! (South Lyon Ex-aminer.)"

Although our village citizens did not turn out very well at the oyster supper given by the Improvement Society last Monday night it was not a failure, and there was an interesting program.

"Among the Breakers," and are receiving the same which they expect to present at Liberty Hall in the near future.

Holiday goods are arriving daily at Whitcomb & Mitchell's.

There is no use of talking, anarchy must go - no room for it in this great, great country. Her most had a fair trial by her own selection and found guilty. Good! let the work go on.

Clark Peersall and family have gone to St. Jordan and by last time are safely settled in their new home. We wish them a beautiful prosperity in their location and may they never regret their removal from our midst.

Birmingham now sends quite a delegation of business men to Detroit every morning who return home the same night. There are Messrs. Slade, Akin, Clark, Alexander, Taylor and Misses Uiter and Drake to hear from.

There was a surprise party last Friday night in honor of J. Arthur and Emma. The young ladies brought the cakes and the young men brought the oysters and gave Ed other 100 for his services. They all had a good time.

G. H. Turk, the live clothes of this week, has a change of ad. This week look over carefully and when in Paris visit his emporium of fashion and see if you cannot receive what you want in the line of clothing. We know you will for his stock is simply wonderful.

John E. Helt, of South Lyon, drove late town last Sunday evening and caught the entire Methodist choir and took them to Royal Oak, where they sang a choice selection of songs to the delight of the Royal Oakers and doing great credit to themselves.

Prof. Norton is the champion band teacher of Michigan. He has a class for every night in the week but one and he expects to fill that by teaching the Big River band. Really the boys could do no better than to employ Prof. Norton if they wish to play quickly and nicely.

It is too bad that the Birmingham Improvement society met with no success at their oyster supper Monday night. As all the money they were raising for the people makes good for the benefit of the people, it seems that their efforts ought to be better appreciated.

Our blue pencil arrived this morning from Chicago by telegraph. You should see the beautiful program and illustrations and its beautiful sales base. Do you get "out" to color on this new method now.

Wanted: A good new milch cow. Inquire at the Cooper farm.

A. W. Campbell's in Royal Oak they have struck a steady fire of gas and it is considered to be a reliable discovery. It is hoped that Detroit capitalists will take hold of the well and send out its true worth. Oil for gas and fire and light. If it has to be piped from Royal Oak.

Richard Hatch has returned from his long western trip. His trip, as a business venture, exceeded his fondest dreams. He has the most beautiful stock of wild west yarns. During his absence he learned a new trade, that of sawing off cows' horns, a practice much observed by farmers in Illinois and Iowa.

F. R. Lamb, township treasurer of Troy, will be at the store of Whitehead & Mitchell in Birmingham every Saturday in December, except on December 8, to receive taxes, and at Troy Corners in Frank Cutting's store on Thursdays, except December 1. At home in Big Beaver on the 2nd.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Zion Episcopal church, Postoffice, will hold a Bazaar at Clinton Hall on the afternoons and evenings of Dec. 15, 16, and 17, the proceeds to be applied towards the completion of the repairs of the church. All are requested to come and help in a good cause.

Bert Collier, the boy who came so near being killed by the discharge of a shotgun on Thanksgiving day, is recovering from his injuries, and will eventually have the sight of his eyes and aside from the terrible shock to his nervous system and some scars he will soon be as good as new.

I do not promise to give old habits to the boy who has and today good me; but I promise them the worth of their money, as well as good work, which is far better.

L. Corey of Deatur, Alabama, sends us circulars and papers describing the phenomenal growth and gigantic business of the city of Birmingham since February last, and the statements sent to be beyond belief.

The greatest of all buildings is a $400,000 one to be completed in