CARD OF THANKS.

We hereby respectfully tender our sincere thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly assisted at our concert last week and who helped to enter-tain our large audience in such an enjoyable manner and trust that some day we may be allowed to return the favor. Franklin Band. R. C. Cumming's See'y. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That those living curiosities that dis-turbed the Franklin band concert dur-their recent entertainment at Library hall could well pose at dime musum, one for a brainless dwarf and the other se a first class purloiner of overcoats who efuses to cash up to repay the man who ettled up for his stealing. These two ondescripts alone would stock a museondescripts alone would am and draw great crowds.
