HOME NOTES.

PERPETUAL NOTICE.

Our readers who have legal advertisements...

Let's celebrate.

Game underwritten at V. Nixon & Co's.

Our shade trees give the town a very pleasant appearance.

Now, Fisher, you stop! Haven't a man any rights in this world? Say!

Rev. Bartholomew will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Embroidered chamber, catkins and mild dress goods at V. Nixon & Co's.

The Franklin bank will furnish mail for decoration day services at Farmington.

Miss Frances Burnett of Port Huron is visiting with Mrs. J. E. Quick this week.

Ask Whitehead and Mitchell about the new and improved White sewing machine.

If you are working for a sten just get at the front of Whitehead & Mitchell's store as you drive into town.

Who can beat this record? Until last week Miss Annie Cooper has not been absent from school in seven terms—nearly.

Those of our readers desiring a permanent situation and good pay might well read the advertisement of "men wanted" in another column.

Charlie Wells of Waterford, who used to live here, has been and gone and up and got married, and not long ago he was advertising for a housekeeper.

Having a large quantity of round and split cedar fence posts, I will sell them cheap, in car load lots or in small quantities. J. W. Perry.

The Rochester Express jumps into volume 3 with a great deal of gusto and vim, May Fox and his live to see the 30th volume alive and hearty.

Any good moral Christian person wishing to adopt a bright healthy and active boy can do so at an opportunity by calling at this office.

County Treasurer Bigelow has $1,351.56 library money on hand for distribution among the school districts. This amounts to about 14¢ per scholar.

Rev. E. B. Service, Subject of sermon for Sabbath morning, "Everlasting punishment." Matt. 25:46. Come one, come all.

All the members of the Birmingham high school alumni are requested to meet with Miss Mollie Smith on Friday evening, May 20, at 7.30 sharp. By order of President.

The White sewing machine has been so vastly improved that you will hardly recognize it. It is a mechanical curiosity. Call and see it in operation at Whitehead Mitchell's.

Till Trowbridge's bull-dog had a fight with the so-called mad dog about ten days ago and on Monday last Till carried off a prize of $100.

John Snow sheared his sheep one day recently and from 30 sheep he secured 500 pounds of choice staple wool. Ten sterling ewes averaged 13.5 pounds each, which ought to satisfy any farmer as to what John who is well pleased with the result of his wool raising.

The village board of review met on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and will meet again to review and correct the assessment roll for 1887 on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

A new line of embroideries at V. Nixon & Co's.

No. two than 11,399 pensions were issued during the month of April—the largest number of any month in American history. This, 22 years after the close of the war, contains food for serious thought.—[Lansing Republican.]

The Young People's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. W. C. Hall, Friday evening, May 20. Exercises of recitations, original stories and recitations will be had. Members are requested to be present and all young people cordially invited.

Base ball news received every day at Whitehead & Mitchell's. When you hear Ed Lamb's go-for-or-sure shout and "giddy!" you may safely bet that Detroit has won—and you can hear it almost every night.

Measles Louis Stanley, Martin D. Masters and E. S. Wooster are hereby notified that the Fair is now in Michigan and will exhibit at Pontiac on the 31st of May. They are especially invited to be present and take along their pocketbooks.

In a recent issue of The Correspondent was an error regarding the monument set up for Mrs. A. C. Trowbridge in the city of Detroit. The correspondent said: "Mr. W. H. Fox put up the monument." The monument of Pontiac who did the job.

New lawns for yard at V. Nixon & Co's.

doing this week when he calls special attention to his new stock of dress goods and trimmings in his new ad.

Now is the time to get your screen doors and windows. Whitehead & Mitchell have adjustable window screens for sale, fit any window, easy to take out and replace, and the very best screen door manufactured at prices cheaper than any carpenter can make one. Call and see them.

The new time table issued by the old reliable D. G. H. & M. Ry. is greatly appreciated by our citizens as the new passenger train leaves Detroit at 8 o'clock gives our base ball enthusiasts a good chance to witness the Detroit games. Verily this company studies for the benefit of its patrons.

Say! Hello! Are you thinking of buying a sewing machine? Well, if you are, don't let it until you see the new and improved White.

We have secured the agency of T. Roy, Royal, Call, Southfield and Michigan, the hardware and building materials to 61 all orders. Don't buy until you see the new and improved White.

One day recently Mrs. L. Sawyer of Detroit came and took possession of a place on the Southfield road and after about a week's sojourn the passer-by hardly knew the place; old fence torn down, shrubbery trimmed up and a general clearing up made things shine and bright.

Monday afternoon, well satisfied with her endeavor.

A young man from the vicinity of Big Beaver walked into Ed O'Neil's harness shop last Monday night and "borrowed" a whip. He was caught, returned it, which he did after several days of having taken it. When he offered to settle for the whip Ed should have seen his pocket and the whip would have been a little higher up wouldn't have come amiss.

The decrease in the number of dogs in this village has been satisfactory in the extreme to persons who love the noble canine. Blackie, the hardware man, sold over thirty muzzles in one day. The poor dogs rear up and paw the air under the indignity of the straps and collars, and then they say "muzzled him just in time—mad already!" and the cold lead is pounded into him and he passes in his tracks.

The Stanley building on Maple avenue has been fitted up in a neat and tidy manner for the convenience of a first-class hair dresser and crockery parlor. Mrs. M. Smith is at the helm with fresh bread, rolls, cookies, etc. Her crockery parlors are in a neat and tidy condition and you can get the palatable luxury thing at all times. On Saturday Elmer & Durfee's mail positively regains its place. Call on the good lady and be convinced of the above facts.

D. J. McDonald, who has so long and ably conducted the Evening Journal of Lansing up to its present site of excellence, has resigned his position to accept the management of Mabley and Company's advertising department and will return to his old friends of the press to call and make his office their headquarters when in the city. Thanks. We'll call and wish you the greatest success of your new department.

The first of next month Dave Hyde who has been clerking for J. R. Conroy the past year, and Lincoln Hyde, who has been acting in the same capacity for A. R. Ruff of Franklin, will go into the grocery business at 314 West Second street, the firm name of Hyde Bros. They are both young men of irreproachable character and excellent business qualifications, and if the good wishes of their many friends throughout the city do them a particle of good, they can be assured of success.

Just received—large line of white goods at V. Nixon & Co's.

The following is said to be a sure cure for the hydrophobia. It is recommended that it be taken as soon after the bite as may be, but any time before spasms come: "One and one-half ounces of elecampane root, bruised; put into a pint of new milk and reduce by boiling half a pint. Let it be taken in the morning on an empty stomach, and eat nothing for six hours. The second day the same—only two ounces of the root. The third day repeat with two ounces. The fourth day the same. The collector for private examination by parties desiring to purchase such accounts for exchange—[W. D. Baugh in Milford Times.]

EX-GOV. ENGLISH and wife of Connecticut, will return after an extended tour through the latter country, Scotland, and Ireland.

FRANCES COLONNA, the daughter of Mrs. J. Mackay, is to accompany her husband to this country in a special train. He is coming over to look after his railroad interests in Mexico and Texas.

JOHN C. CALHOUN, of South Carolina, grandson of the great minister, has the second largest cotton-field in the United States. He was a captain in the Confederate service at 18 and is now 61.

ALMA TADENA's health has been seriously affected by a peculiar pain which he employed in decorating a room in his new home, and he has been obliged to cease all work for an indefinite time.

In spite of the fish law and the county official who is supposed to enforce it, there is more or less sport going on.

The other day an Englishman recently over, who probably isn't very well posted on the customs of this part of the world, took a pair and followed the winding Clinton. He met with fair success and finally struck what he supposed was a "fish" off his spear and ejaculated: "Burger! my bloody hero, what kind of a blarney country is this where fish have four legs and walk back into the water!" The English blunderer had found a lizard—[Bill Foster.]

G. C. Gibbs has long felt a desire to have a flower well, like anti his neighbor Bayley. Five years ago he purchased the necessary implements and attempted to make one, but met with an obstacle in the shape of sand. He subsequently secured the services of professionals who were also beaten by sand after five weeks of hard labor. Gibbs gave up the attempt for a while, but never the desire. He recently employed Phil & Dennis who, with their Ohio well digging machine, made not only one doing well, but two, thereby making Gibbs happy. He does not get tired any more thinking he will have to haul water for six months this year as he did last year.

Died: On Monday last at 8 a. m. of inflammation of the lungs, Mona Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Logan. For several years past she had been in poor health. Her naturally warm hearted and loving disposition made her more dear to all who knew her. No one could have a greater number of warm personal friends than this gentle, almost angelic little girl, with the frail body and constitution of a fairy, and the soul of a giant. The constant thought of all who knew her during the last days of her brief life was, "What a beautiful place on Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Thomas M. Dennis of Wyandotte officiating, and remain-in-remembered in Greenwood cemetery."

It is considered incumbent upon the newspapers published in a city or village to give more or less space to booming the town and telling of its advantages so that strangers who read the papers may form a favorable idea of the place, and the newspapers always do their share, but there is a reciprocal duty on the part of citizens, which is not so apt to be fulfilled and which the Lansing Journal refers to as follows: "It is a laudable fact that the very parties who receive the most benefit from the constant newspaper booming of a town are usually the last ones to make a proper acknowledgment of it. Many of the editors and publishers are expected to help the newspapers. The latter are expected to live everybody's horse as a matter of course. We are glad to say that here in Lansing the Lansing Journal is an exception.
