

51 PER YEAR.
VOL. X. NO. 5

"Devoted to our Own Locality, We Labor for its Interests."

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1887.

IN ADVANCE.

WHOLE NO. 478

JETROIT, O'D HAVEN & MILWAU- KEE RAILWAY.

CENTRAL STANDARD TIME.

GOING WEST.

Morning Express	7:25 a.m.
Day Express	11:15 a.m.
Evening Express	5:50 p.m.
News Accommodation	8:50 p.m.
Mail Express	10:00 p.m.

GOING EAST.

Evening Accommodation	7:10 a.m.
Day Express	11:15 a.m.
Mail	4:00 p.m.
Day Express	8:50 p.m.
Mail Express	10:00 p.m.

A. B. ATWATER,
General Supt.

W. J. SPICER, Manager.

Pass. List. Found, etc.

15 REGISTERED MERINO STOCK RAMS
For sale. J. H. Snow, Birmingham, Mich.

TO LET—A nice place in Birmingham can be had. Mrs. Clark Harris, 1000 1/2 N. 1st St., Birmingham, Mich.

FOR SALE—Village lots for sale cheaply. J. H. Snow, Birmingham, Mich.

STONE HEATS—Some boats and stone heat for sale. J. H. Snow, Birmingham, Mich.

HOCKEY ROLLER—A roller and two new roller blades for sale. J. H. Snow, Birmingham, Mich.

FOR SALE—Burling house and stone heat for sale. J. H. Snow, Birmingham, Mich.

FOR SALE—Burling house and stone heat for sale. J. H. Snow, Birmingham, Mich.

Business Cards.
Mrs. Betty Smith, at the Lovers' home on Pierce St., takes this way of informing the public in Birmingham that she has moved and is ready and willing to do her usual business. Mrs. Betty Smith, Birmingham, Mich.

FLAT SEWING.
Mrs. Betty Smith, at the Lovers' home on Pierce St., takes this way of informing the public in Birmingham that she has moved and is ready and willing to do her usual business. Mrs. Betty Smith, Birmingham, Mich.

WANTED—A man to do some work. Mrs. Betty Smith, Birmingham, Mich.

The Chase Nurseries.
Mrs. Betty Smith, at the Lovers' home on Pierce St., takes this way of informing the public in Birmingham that she has moved and is ready and willing to do her usual business. Mrs. Betty Smith, Birmingham, Mich.

Waverly House, Pontiac.
Mrs. Betty Smith, at the Lovers' home on Pierce St., takes this way of informing the public in Birmingham that she has moved and is ready and willing to do her usual business. Mrs. Betty Smith, Birmingham, Mich.

DENTAL SURGERY.
D. M. Johnson, L. D. S.

One and Vitalized Air used for the pulmonary extraction of blood. Office first door west of Presbyterian church. Hours from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

ATTENTION!
Having received the agency of the celebrated SCOVILL BUGGY, manufactured at 1916, I will keep a stock of both open and covered buggies on hand. Call and examine before purchasing.

IRRA SLADE
—DEALER IN—
LUMBER, BRICK, COAL, PLASTER
—AND—
FERTILIZERS
Agent for the best Manilla Mill over Manufactured.

WAREHOUSE AT DEPOT.
IRRA SLADE.
Fechheimer Bros.
67 & 69 Jefferson Ave.
DETROIT, MICH.

WHISKIES,
Wines & Liquors of all kinds for Medical USE.
Fechheimer Bros.
NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!
Hats & Bonnets, Ribbons & Flowers
Hosiery, Suits, Shoes, Vellings, Goggles, Bowties
—and—
Sunglasses and Trimmings.
I would call special attention to my
WALL PAPER and BORDERS.
Colors, Patterns and Designs for sale.
Call and look over.
50c. CORSET.
L. T. FURMAN.

HOME NOTES.

PERPETUAL NOTICE
You will please notice date upon your own paper and wrapper; if you have your subscription expired, I prefer to see it renewed and will not.

Our readers who have legal advertisements should always bear in mind that it is not sufficient to have them inserted in the publication in the Executive. A request to the printer to publish them, and the advertisement to be sent here, will be promptly complied with.

Did you see Forreugh?
At Holly all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.
Best prices 6 cents per pound at Nixon & Co's.

Pure Paris bread at Whitehead & Mitchell's.
Babbitt's soap only 1/4 cent per bar at Nixon & Co's.

Fresh strawberries every day during the season at Corson's.
On an average Marshall Beattie does not now shoot a dog a day.

Carl Grand of Pontiac, and two kindred spirits were in town Sunday.
Pontiac is having a mad dog scare and all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.

A Mexican Hammock with a pair of Ropes and Spreads for $1.50 at Corson's.
Our fabulous soap, quite successful. Gunn Shain leading the crowd as usual.

James Shain has returned from his southern tour and will continue in Michigan.
Photographs are going up after August 1. Read Brumfield's ad. this week.

A. B. Taylor, formerly a photographer of Pontiac, died in Detroit last week.
Randall, the Detroit photographer, will make cabinets for $2 per dozen for a couple of weeks.

Gibbs and Whitehead show their bicycles to Detroit last Sunday afternoon and attended a sacred concert.
Fred Chatfield is in for five years—working for Uncle Sam. When he gets to "fight" injures on the western border we expect to hear something dry.

Big time at Pontiac last Tuesday. Everybody took their aunts and went to see the great and only Foreignish show.
John Pound comes out this week with something of interest to the ladies, and tells you all about it in his new ad. in this issue.

Sabbath next Rev. Fin will supply the Baptist pulpit in the absence of the pastor, who has gone to fill the pulp at Sturgeon.
Fishes led at the new patent Hooks, Trolling Hooks, Hook Extractors, Luminous Bait, etc., at Corson's. Largest line in town.

A few salesmen wanted by the Chase Nurseries. Permanent employment and a fixed salary is offered in the advertisement. "Men Wanted."
Mr. James A. Post and wife, accompanied by Mr. Ed. Hitting and wife, were the guests of E. R. Post and family over Sunday.

Persons intending to join the cemetery association will find it to their interest to do so as early as possible, so that their lots will advertise attention during the whole season.
The Rev. Mr. Atley has entered its 12th year, and the Episcopate at Birmingham has entered its 10th year, both having nice well paying salaries as is found in any county in Michigan. —Pontiac Gazette.

New parsons just received at very low prices at Corson's.
Mrs. Ellen Phelps of Ottonville, Mich., sister of Mrs. Benjamin Daniels, has been with Mrs. D. for the past week, owing to her sick. Mrs. Daniels has been very ill, but we are pleased to say she is now improving.

Troy was visited by Detroiters last week at Albert Todd's. Miss O'Neal and her party, including Mr. and Mrs. Lizzy Hunter, Fannie Hunter and Mary Sanbury, all of Detroit, made a short visit and enjoyed it very much.
The Crematorium Association have for some time been in the hands of members of the society purchasing for their lots in the cemetery can have the trees moved to the lots by the sexton without extra expense. Apply to J. Wilson.

A Masonic school of instruction will be held at Pontiac lodge, No. 21, on June 17, at 10 o'clock p. m. All Master Masons are earnestly urged to be present. The Master of Birmingham lodge will accompany and desires all who can, to attend him.

Thousands of men and women to whom these two are important papers, not to speak of young people. WIDE AWAKE for June can be got by sending 20 cents to Detroit Company, Boston. Subscription, $2.40 a year. A sample copy sent for 5 cents.
James R. Corson, Sr., is still very poor in health indeed, and is confined to his bed the greater part of the time. Although the old gentleman is well advanced in years, we are in hopes that settled summer weather will get him about town again.

The entertainment given by the Young People's Society, at the residence of Mrs. Uiter, on the evening of Memorial Day, was a success, notwithstanding the heat of the weather, and those present expressed themselves well pleased with the exercises of the evening.
Mrs. Parks will on the old Alger farm in Troy, for with the help of Fines well and please beyond measure. We did not know that William intended starting a milk depot, but they do say the first thing a milk man aims at is a good water power. Wonder why.

A very fine painting of Lilla, one of the valuable dogs exhibited at the Detroit bench show held last week, is on exhibition at this office. This worthy canine is of St. Bernard blood and is valued at $500 by his proud owner, who gave very much for the dog in Europe last summer. The painting is highly artistic and greatly prized by the owner.

James Young, son of Peter Young, formerly of this place, was in town on his bicycle, enroute with a friend from Detroit to Pontiac. James will be remembered by our readers who knew him as a little black boy playing make believe in our streets. He is now a fine man, straight as an arrow and showing good health and a gentlemanly manner in every movement. It takes but a little time for these little ones to become men.

Lap Robes, Wylies, Rubber Coats, Ladies' and Children's Rubber Circulars cheaper than the cheapest at Corson's.
Through the courtesy of Ben Fletcher, former passenger agent of the G. W. & M. R. R., Detroit, and Alfine Snow, who includes a score sheet for every Detroit game. It is the most complete thing of the kind in the city.

John and Peter, record and pension giving the history, record and pension of every player in the league. Send 2 cent and get one of Ben Fletcher, General Passenger agent of the G. W. & M. R. R., Detroit, Mich.

The Parly Brothers of Southfield recently purchased a tract of land of Mrs. Mosley, adjoining them in that township which now makes them a fine farm. Their plantation, which they own jointly, now comprises 300 acres, with one foot of waste land upon the whole tract. No better farm lies out doors in the county of Oakland, and no better boys can be found in the state than those some whole-souled, hospitable Parly Brothers of Southfield.

Outsiders frequently wonder where the railroads obtain proper returns for some of the ingenious but costly methods adopted in advertising their wares. One of the latest to attract our attention is a nicely bound 64-page book entitled "What to Buy," containing description and the correct rules of a large number of games suitable for parties or lawn, which has been issued by the passenger Department of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railway, and, we understand, be forwarded to postpaid upon receipt of 5 cents by C. H. Warren, General Passenger Agent, at St. Paul. It is a book that would ornament almost any table and interest both young and old.

Michigan has ceased to be a bicycle province. The new-day jay just after taking a spin around one block and coming in puffing, panting and wheezing as usual, a stranger who had arrived during his absence about his "heavy" in New York, and who were the guests of E. R. Post and family over Sunday.

Persons intending to join the cemetery association will find it to their interest to do so as early as possible, so that their lots will advertise attention during the whole season.
The Rev. Mr. Atley has entered its 12th year, and the Episcopate at Birmingham has entered its 10th year, both having nice well paying salaries as is found in any county in Michigan. —Pontiac Gazette.

HOME NOTES.

PERPETUAL NOTICE
You will please notice date upon your own paper and wrapper; if you have your subscription expired, I prefer to see it renewed and will not.

Our readers who have legal advertisements should always bear in mind that it is not sufficient to have them inserted in the publication in the Executive. A request to the printer to publish them, and the advertisement to be sent here, will be promptly complied with.

Did you see Forreugh?
At Holly all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.
Best prices 6 cents per pound at Nixon & Co's.

Pure Paris bread at Whitehead & Mitchell's.
Babbitt's soap only 1/4 cent per bar at Nixon & Co's.

Fresh strawberries every day during the season at Corson's.
On an average Marshall Beattie does not now shoot a dog a day.

Carl Grand of Pontiac, and two kindred spirits were in town Sunday.
Pontiac is having a mad dog scare and all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.

A Mexican Hammock with a pair of Ropes and Spreads for $1.50 at Corson's.
Our fabulous soap, quite successful. Gunn Shain leading the crowd as usual.

James Shain has returned from his southern tour and will continue in Michigan.
Photographs are going up after August 1. Read Brumfield's ad. this week.

A. B. Taylor, formerly a photographer of Pontiac, died in Detroit last week.
Randall, the Detroit photographer, will make cabinets for $2 per dozen for a couple of weeks.

Gibbs and Whitehead show their bicycles to Detroit last Sunday afternoon and attended a sacred concert.
Fred Chatfield is in for five years—working for Uncle Sam. When he gets to "fight" injures on the western border we expect to hear something dry.

Big time at Pontiac last Tuesday. Everybody took their aunts and went to see the great and only Foreignish show.
John Pound comes out this week with something of interest to the ladies, and tells you all about it in his new ad. in this issue.

Sabbath next Rev. Fin will supply the Baptist pulpit in the absence of the pastor, who has gone to fill the pulp at Sturgeon.
Fishes led at the new patent Hooks, Trolling Hooks, Hook Extractors, Luminous Bait, etc., at Corson's. Largest line in town.

A few salesmen wanted by the Chase Nurseries. Permanent employment and a fixed salary is offered in the advertisement. "Men Wanted."
Mr. James A. Post and wife, accompanied by Mr. Ed. Hitting and wife, were the guests of E. R. Post and family over Sunday.

Persons intending to join the cemetery association will find it to their interest to do so as early as possible, so that their lots will advertise attention during the whole season.
The Rev. Mr. Atley has entered its 12th year, and the Episcopate at Birmingham has entered its 10th year, both having nice well paying salaries as is found in any county in Michigan. —Pontiac Gazette.

New parsons just received at very low prices at Corson's.
Mrs. Ellen Phelps of Ottonville, Mich., sister of Mrs. Benjamin Daniels, has been with Mrs. D. for the past week, owing to her sick. Mrs. Daniels has been very ill, but we are pleased to say she is now improving.

Troy was visited by Detroiters last week at Albert Todd's. Miss O'Neal and her party, including Mr. and Mrs. Lizzy Hunter, Fannie Hunter and Mary Sanbury, all of Detroit, made a short visit and enjoyed it very much.
The Crematorium Association have for some time been in the hands of members of the society purchasing for their lots in the cemetery can have the trees moved to the lots by the sexton without extra expense. Apply to J. Wilson.

A Masonic school of instruction will be held at Pontiac lodge, No. 21, on June 17, at 10 o'clock p. m. All Master Masons are earnestly urged to be present. The Master of Birmingham lodge will accompany and desires all who can, to attend him.

Thousands of men and women to whom these two are important papers, not to speak of young people. WIDE AWAKE for June can be got by sending 20 cents to Detroit Company, Boston. Subscription, $2.40 a year. A sample copy sent for 5 cents.
James R. Corson, Sr., is still very poor in health indeed, and is confined to his bed the greater part of the time. Although the old gentleman is well advanced in years, we are in hopes that settled summer weather will get him about town again.

The entertainment given by the Young People's Society, at the residence of Mrs. Uiter, on the evening of Memorial Day, was a success, notwithstanding the heat of the weather, and those present expressed themselves well pleased with the exercises of the evening.
Mrs. Parks will on the old Alger farm in Troy, for with the help of Fines well and please beyond measure. We did not know that William intended starting a milk depot, but they do say the first thing a milk man aims at is a good water power. Wonder why.

A very fine painting of Lilla, one of the valuable dogs exhibited at the Detroit bench show held last week, is on exhibition at this office. This worthy canine is of St. Bernard blood and is valued at $500 by his proud owner, who gave very much for the dog in Europe last summer. The painting is highly artistic and greatly prized by the owner.

James Young, son of Peter Young, formerly of this place, was in town on his bicycle, enroute with a friend from Detroit to Pontiac. James will be remembered by our readers who knew him as a little black boy playing make believe in our streets. He is now a fine man, straight as an arrow and showing good health and a gentlemanly manner in every movement. It takes but a little time for these little ones to become men.

Lap Robes, Wylies, Rubber Coats, Ladies' and Children's Rubber Circulars cheaper than the cheapest at Corson's.
Through the courtesy of Ben Fletcher, former passenger agent of the G. W. & M. R. R., Detroit, and Alfine Snow, who includes a score sheet for every Detroit game. It is the most complete thing of the kind in the city.

John and Peter, record and pension giving the history, record and pension of every player in the league. Send 2 cent and get one of Ben Fletcher, General Passenger agent of the G. W. & M. R. R., Detroit, Mich.

The Parly Brothers of Southfield recently purchased a tract of land of Mrs. Mosley, adjoining them in that township which now makes them a fine farm. Their plantation, which they own jointly, now comprises 300 acres, with one foot of waste land upon the whole tract. No better farm lies out doors in the county of Oakland, and no better boys can be found in the state than those some whole-souled, hospitable Parly Brothers of Southfield.

Outsiders frequently wonder where the railroads obtain proper returns for some of the ingenious but costly methods adopted in advertising their wares. One of the latest to attract our attention is a nicely bound 64-page book entitled "What to Buy," containing description and the correct rules of a large number of games suitable for parties or lawn, which has been issued by the passenger Department of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railway, and, we understand, be forwarded to postpaid upon receipt of 5 cents by C. H. Warren, General Passenger Agent, at St. Paul. It is a book that would ornament almost any table and interest both young and old.

Michigan has ceased to be a bicycle province. The new-day jay just after taking a spin around one block and coming in puffing, panting and wheezing as usual, a stranger who had arrived during his absence about his "heavy" in New York, and who were the guests of E. R. Post and family over Sunday.

Persons intending to join the cemetery association will find it to their interest to do so as early as possible, so that their lots will advertise attention during the whole season.
The Rev. Mr. Atley has entered its 12th year, and the Episcopate at Birmingham has entered its 10th year, both having nice well paying salaries as is found in any county in Michigan. —Pontiac Gazette.

HOME NOTES.

PERPETUAL NOTICE
You will please notice date upon your own paper and wrapper; if you have your subscription expired, I prefer to see it renewed and will not.

Our readers who have legal advertisements should always bear in mind that it is not sufficient to have them inserted in the publication in the Executive. A request to the printer to publish them, and the advertisement to be sent here, will be promptly complied with.

Did you see Forreugh?
At Holly all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.
Best prices 6 cents per pound at Nixon & Co's.

Pure Paris bread at Whitehead & Mitchell's.
Babbitt's soap only 1/4 cent per bar at Nixon & Co's.

Fresh strawberries every day during the season at Corson's.
On an average Marshall Beattie does not now shoot a dog a day.

Carl Grand of Pontiac, and two kindred spirits were in town Sunday.
Pontiac is having a mad dog scare and all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.

A Mexican Hammock with a pair of Ropes and Spreads for $1.50 at Corson's.
Our fabulous soap, quite successful. Gunn Shain leading the crowd as usual.

James Shain has returned from his southern tour and will continue in Michigan.
Photographs are going up after August 1. Read Brumfield's ad. this week.

A. B. Taylor, formerly a photographer of Pontiac, died in Detroit last week.
Randall, the Detroit photographer, will make cabinets for $2 per dozen for a couple of weeks.

Gibbs and Whitehead show their bicycles to Detroit last Sunday afternoon and attended a sacred concert.
Fred Chatfield is in for five years—working for Uncle Sam. When he gets to "fight" injures on the western border we expect to hear something dry.

Big time at Pontiac last Tuesday. Everybody took their aunts and went to see the great and only Foreignish show.
John Pound comes out this week with something of interest to the ladies, and tells you all about it in his new ad. in this issue.

Sabbath next Rev. Fin will supply the Baptist pulpit in the absence of the pastor, who has gone to fill the pulp at Sturgeon.
Fishes led at the new patent Hooks, Trolling Hooks, Hook Extractors, Luminous Bait, etc., at Corson's. Largest line in town.

A few salesmen wanted by the Chase Nurseries. Permanent employment and a fixed salary is offered in the advertisement. "Men Wanted."
Mr. James A. Post and wife, accompanied by Mr. Ed. Hitting and wife, were the guests of E. R. Post and family over Sunday.

Persons intending to join the cemetery association will find it to their interest to do so as early as possible, so that their lots will advertise attention during the whole season.
The Rev. Mr. Atley has entered its 12th year, and the Episcopate at Birmingham has entered its 10th year, both having nice well paying salaries as is found in any county in Michigan. —Pontiac Gazette.

New parsons just received at very low prices at Corson's.
Mrs. Ellen Phelps of Ottonville, Mich., sister of Mrs. Benjamin Daniels, has been with Mrs. D. for the past week, owing to her sick. Mrs. Daniels has been very ill, but we are pleased to say she is now improving.

Troy was visited by Detroiters last week at Albert Todd's. Miss O'Neal and her party, including Mr. and Mrs. Lizzy Hunter, Fannie Hunter and Mary Sanbury, all of Detroit, made a short visit and enjoyed it very much.
The Crematorium Association have for some time been in the hands of members of the society purchasing for their lots in the cemetery can have the trees moved to the lots by the sexton without extra expense. Apply to J. Wilson.

A Masonic school of instruction will be held at Pontiac lodge, No. 21, on June 17, at 10 o'clock p. m. All Master Masons are earnestly urged to be present. The Master of Birmingham lodge will accompany and desires all who can, to attend him.

Thousands of men and women to whom these two are important papers, not to speak of young people. WIDE AWAKE for June can be got by sending 20 cents to Detroit Company, Boston. Subscription, $2.40 a year. A sample copy sent for 5 cents.
James R. Corson, Sr., is still very poor in health indeed, and is confined to his bed the greater part of the time. Although the old gentleman is well advanced in years, we are in hopes that settled summer weather will get him about town again.

The entertainment given by the Young People's Society, at the residence of Mrs. Uiter, on the evening of Memorial Day, was a success, notwithstanding the heat of the weather, and those present expressed themselves well pleased with the exercises of the evening.
Mrs. Parks will on the old Alger farm in Troy, for with the help of Fines well and please beyond measure. We did not know that William intended starting a milk depot, but they do say the first thing a milk man aims at is a good water power. Wonder why.

A very fine painting of Lilla, one of the valuable dogs exhibited at the Detroit bench show held last week, is on exhibition at this office. This worthy canine is of St. Bernard blood and is valued at $500 by his proud owner, who gave very much for the dog in Europe last summer. The painting is highly artistic and greatly prized by the owner.

James Young, son of Peter Young, formerly of this place, was in town on his bicycle, enroute with a friend from Detroit to Pontiac. James will be remembered by our readers who knew him as a little black boy playing make believe in our streets. He is now a fine man, straight as an arrow and showing good health and a gentlemanly manner in every movement. It takes but a little time for these little ones to become men.

Lap Robes, Wylies, Rubber Coats, Ladies' and Children's Rubber Circulars cheaper than the cheapest at Corson's.
Through the courtesy of Ben Fletcher, former passenger agent of the G. W. & M. R. R., Detroit, and Alfine Snow, who includes a score sheet for every Detroit game. It is the most complete thing of the kind in the city.

John and Peter, record and pension giving the history, record and pension of every player in the league. Send 2 cent and get one of Ben Fletcher, General Passenger agent of the G. W. & M. R. R., Detroit, Mich.

The Parly Brothers of Southfield recently purchased a tract of land of Mrs. Mosley, adjoining them in that township which now makes them a fine farm. Their plantation, which they own jointly, now comprises 300 acres, with one foot of waste land upon the whole tract. No better farm lies out doors in the county of Oakland, and no better boys can be found in the state than those some whole-souled, hospitable Parly Brothers of Southfield.

Outsiders frequently wonder where the railroads obtain proper returns for some of the ingenious but costly methods adopted in advertising their wares. One of the latest to attract our attention is a nicely bound 64-page book entitled "What to Buy," containing description and the correct rules of a large number of games suitable for parties or lawn, which has been issued by the passenger Department of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railway, and, we understand, be forwarded to postpaid upon receipt of 5 cents by C. H. Warren, General Passenger Agent, at St. Paul. It is a book that would ornament almost any table and interest both young and old.

Michigan has ceased to be a bicycle province. The new-day jay just after taking a spin around one block and coming in puffing, panting and wheezing as usual, a stranger who had arrived during his absence about his "heavy" in New York, and who were the guests of E. R. Post and family over Sunday.

Persons intending to join the cemetery association will find it to their interest to do so as early as possible, so that their lots will advertise attention during the whole season.
The Rev. Mr. Atley has entered its 12th year, and the Episcopate at Birmingham has entered its 10th year, both having nice well paying salaries as is found in any county in Michigan. —Pontiac Gazette.

HOME NOTES.

PERPETUAL NOTICE
You will please notice date upon your own paper and wrapper; if you have your subscription expired, I prefer to see it renewed and will not.

Our readers who have legal advertisements should always bear in mind that it is not sufficient to have them inserted in the publication in the Executive. A request to the printer to publish them, and the advertisement to be sent here, will be promptly complied with.

Did you see Forreugh?
At Holly all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.
Best prices 6 cents per pound at Nixon & Co's.

Pure Paris bread at Whitehead & Mitchell's.
Babbitt's soap only 1/4 cent per bar at Nixon & Co's.

Fresh strawberries every day during the season at Corson's.
On an average Marshall Beattie does not now shoot a dog a day.

Carl Grand of Pontiac, and two kindred spirits were in town Sunday.
Pontiac is having a mad dog scare and all unuzzed dogs are shot on sight.

A Mexican Hammock with a pair of Ropes and Spreads for $1.50 at Corson's.
Our fabulous soap, quite successful. Gunn Shain leading the crowd as usual.

James Shain has returned from his southern tour and will continue in Michigan.
Photographs are going up after August 1. Read Brumfield's ad. this week.

A. B. Taylor, formerly a photographer of Pontiac, died in Detroit last week.
Randall, the Detroit photographer, will make cabinets for $2 per dozen for a couple of weeks.

Gibbs and Whitehead show their bicycles to Detroit last Sunday afternoon and attended a sacred concert.
Fred Chatfield is in for five years—working for Uncle Sam. When he gets to "fight" injures on the western border we expect to hear something dry.

Big time at Pontiac last Tuesday. Everybody took their aunts and went to see the great and only Foreignish show.
John Pound comes out this week with something of interest to the ladies, and tells you all about it in his new ad. in this issue.

Sabbath next Rev. Fin will supply the Baptist pulpit in the absence of the pastor, who has gone to fill the pulp at Sturgeon.
Fishes led at the new patent Hooks, Trolling Hooks, Hook Extractors, Luminous Bait, etc., at Corson's. Largest line in town.

A few salesmen wanted by the Chase Nurseries. Permanent employment and a fixed salary is offered in the advertisement. "Men Wanted."
Mr. James A. Post and wife, accompanied by Mr. Ed. Hitting and wife, were the guests of E. R. Post and family over Sunday.

Persons intending to join the cemetery association will find it to their interest to do so as early as possible, so that their lots will advertise attention during the whole season.
The Rev. Mr. Atley has entered its 12th year, and the Episcopate at Birmingham has entered its 10th year, both having nice well paying salaries as is found in any county in Michigan. —Pontiac Gazette.

New parsons just received at very low prices at Corson's.
Mrs. Ellen Phelps of Ottonville, Mich., sister of Mrs. Benjamin Daniels, has been with Mrs. D. for the past week, owing to her sick. Mrs. Daniels has been very ill, but we are pleased to say she is now improving.

Troy was visited by Detroiters last week at Albert Todd's. Miss O'Neal and her party, including Mr. and Mrs. Lizzy Hunter, Fannie Hunter and Mary Sanbury, all of Detroit, made a short visit and enjoyed it very much.
The Crematorium Association have for some time been in the hands of members of the society purchasing for their lots in the cemetery can have the trees moved to the lots by the sexton without extra expense. Apply to J. Wilson.

A Masonic school of instruction will be held at Pontiac lodge, No. 21, on June 17, at 10 o'clock p. m. All Master Masons are earnestly urged to be present. The Master of Birmingham lodge will accompany and desires all who can, to attend him.

Thousands of men and women to whom these two are important papers, not to speak of young people. WIDE AWAKE for June can be got by sending 20 cents to Detroit Company, Boston. Subscription, $2.40 a year. A sample copy sent for 5 cents.
James R. Corson, Sr., is still very poor in health indeed, and is confined to his bed the greater part of the time. Although the old gentleman is well advanced in years, we are in hopes that settled summer weather will get him