Looks as if the penant would get over Recreation Park this year, sure! Our base ball clubs are hilarious in consequence.

Orion and return on Sunday last and a four day trip on the arrival home, which Gibbs and Whitehead did on their bicycles—a little over 40 miles.

John Johnston, the tinner in the employ of Arthur Blakeley, has purchased the house and lot on the north side of Maple Ave. and Edinboro Bldg.

The new law soon to take effect, requiring owners of mortgages to pay interest on them, may increase the rates of interest somewhat, but it will be a blessing to the debtor class.

Mr. W. J. Spicer, Manager.

Holly has voted money to buy a public park, and next season she will open for the benefit of excursionists. For a thorough town booster...

On Wednesday morning last a young friend Guy C. Wallace, left for Olivet college to commence a literary course. His parents both died when he was a mere child and he has since lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wallace of this place.

Miss Jennie Bassett left for Ypsilanti on Tuesday morning last, having had her education at the state Normal school. A select party of young friends bore her bon voyage at her father's residence on Monday evening.

Miss Florence Jones, we always hail as a bright and smart young lady and she proved it last Monday evening when she presided at the 20th anniversary of the wedding day of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Jones, by inviting about 20 guests to celebrate the event.

A complete surprise on Friday evening, September 9, took place at the residence of Moses Gordon in Clawson. It being the 20th anniversary of their wedding, about fifty persons with well filled baskets presented up their congratulations and best wishes.

The new summer resort which will surely boom next season is at Watkins lake, about three miles from Pontiac, where J. Allen Biglow, G. H. Turk, Col. Matthews and Sylvester Cole have secured a lease on the lake and are now in the process of erecting a building on the bank of the lake.

The happiest man in Troy, that is, the latest one, is Hiram Bayley, who is the owner of a flying mill that is regular gopher. Messrs Flinn and Smith did the work and they are the success in the world. This will flow at the rate of 40 gallons per minute from the depth of 171 feet.

The happiest man we have seen since last Christmas is Henry Grinnell, whose 157-foot drive well on his farm near Franklin, although not a "gopher," is a jay forever, inasmuch as, on constant pumping fails to diminish the supply. The work was done by H. J. Carter and does him credit.

Men's white Stock Kip Boots $2.50 per pair.

OAKLAND COUNTY FAIR. At Pontiac, September 27, 28, 29 and 30, 1887. Railed from the Pontiac, Oxford and Port Austin, Michigan A Line and Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee Railroads, for round trip during the week, one and a half fare, for Thursday and Friday, one fare; return the same day.

The premium list this year is large and covers everything of importance manufactured or raised in Oakland county and in Michigan. Special favors are given to farm products, horses, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry.

The great and only Brumitt has taken himself by the slack of the pants and lifted himself out of the slough of oblivion in which he has been slumbering, as it were, and can be looked up in the gallery again full of vim and vigor as usual.

Harry Wattle names the black colt Harry H, by J. W. Spontaneous names Bill Underwood, by Underwood.

On Thursday will come the 250 race and the free for all steeple race with $100 money in each race, and the promise is now for a fine field of horses for each race.

The "Gypsy's Oath," a beautiful and emotional drama in three acts, by Buckstone, will be presented under the auspices of the Ladies' Library Association at Clinton Hall, Pontiac, on the evening of September 20, 1887, at the invitation of H. B. Piercon and Miss Florence Gillett, and the business management of A. C. Turner.

Act 1—Scene 1—Lemuel in trouble; scene 2—Alfred, the doctor, is building a cart; "Don't you hurt my feelings"; scene 4—A strange meeting; "I will watch him as the moon watches this earth by night"; Tableau.
