judge of the circuit court at Nashville. I have had the pleasure of meeting the gentleman.

My friend Ben, anxious to return I was unable to see the great house I desired so much to inspect, but had to content myself with those under lock and key.

On our return we visited a bright little sulphur spring and partook of the water which flows out at the foot of the hill by the roadside.

Newtown is the result of some northern boomers' theoretical ideas, the most absurd scheme ever conceived.

When we are again landed at our own doorstep I could not keep back the remark that it was the most pleasant trip I had ever taken.
