GEN. ALGER
A skillful general gathers his forces and...
GENERAL ALGER IS QUITE RIGHT.
The same principles will apply to business and such as we follow.
For months past
We have been "gathering our forces"
Years past
Have given us a knowledge of how and what to gather. We are thoroughly "organized" and ready to "proceed with vigor"
The spring campaign
A dashing, pushing, aggressive campaign it will be.
We know our ground
And elements of strength.
Our guns are loaded
With the rarest bargains.
Our Barriades
Corde of seasonable goods.
Our latest capture
A lot of
The Finest French
Mendocine Saltings which we are
Fighting at the public
At 50c per yard; also
Lots of Scotch
Tweed at 21c, which represent a very rare bargain.
We are fighting
On the merits of our stock.
Our battle cry
The best for the least money.
Our tents are pitched
At the junction of Woodward and Grand River avenues, where we
Are prepared to prove what we assert.
