

LIFE'S LESSONS.

REV. DR. TAMMAGE DISCOURSE. Notable Achievements of Partially Disabled Men. Invaluable to the Deaf and Best Christians.

Patience and Earnest Endeavor of Very Young Men for Securing Good Examples for the More Pervasive Orphan as Heretofore Only Trust Christian Workers.

Brooklyn, N. Y., May 27.—At the Tabernacle this morning the Rev. Dr. W. T. Tammage, D. D., read the second of the most beautiful and inspiring discourses he has given on the life beginning.

The subject of the eloquent discourse was "Disabling Diseases. Bringing Down the Most Great." His text was from Isaiah, "The Lord Take the Press."

Following is the sermon: The first determination of the American people was to build a nation of freemen.

Do you know that the three great goals of the world were totally finished, (peace, justice, and freedom) by the people who were to be the people of the world?
