The Art Amateur for July contains a pleasing colored study of "Perris," a very fine one of "Puppies" in black and white, portrait study by Ellen Welch, a striking drawing of "Auntie" (the) - numerous designs for wood carving, china painting and embroidery, and a page of monograms in '88.

George Hampton of Utica was in town last Monday and has not seemingly grown an inch since he left Birmingham many years ago.

Several Detroit families are boarding in our village for the summer and we have many inquiries from parties in the city who wish to rent houses.

Base ball to-day (Thursday) between the Milford and Birmingham. Both clubs play a good game of ball and here is the character of having the best wins a first-class game.

Dr. J. L. Campbell, who has been in our village for some time, is enjoying a vacation visiting relatives and having a general good time.

The coming races of the Blue Ribbon meeting of the Detroit Driving Club takes place at Hamtramck on July 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28.

The Birmingham Tack factory is turning out thousands of certain poles, curtain rings and ball bats and the demand is still greater than the supply.

Many of our citizens were in Detroit on the fourth and we hear of several rural couples from this vicinity who were forced to stay all night on Belle Isle.

Fourth of July Henry Bisher celebrated the greatest day of his life and so earnestly that the neighbors all rushed over thinking something was up.
