Second Annual Excursion of the Birmingham Eccentric from Birmingham and Royal Oak to

PORT HURON

AND RETURN WEDNESDAY, AUG. 29 FOR ONLY $1 00 ONE DOLLAR $1 00

Train leaves Birmingham at 7:10 a. m. Royal Oak, 7:25, standard time, reaching Detroit at 8:00, where the palace steamer Darius Cole, the largest and fastest excursion steamer on the lakes, will take the excursionists for one of the best water trips in the world.

See the St. Clair ship canal, Lake and river St. Clair, Algonac, Marine City, the Oakland, Rushmere, the Flats, etc.

See the miles of Electric Railway at Port Huron. See the clusters of camps and cottages at Idlewild. Stop at the Oakland, one of the largest hotels west of New York. See the flaming gas wells at Port Huron.

THE FRANKLIN BAND

will accompany the excursion in their new uniforms. Remember Wednesday August 29, at 7:10 a. m., standard time. You will get home on a special train about 9:30 p. m. There is room for all. Everybody come.

WHITEHEAD & MITCHELL.

HOME NOTES. The members of the Y. L. M. S. of Southfield will give an ice cream social at the home of A. L. Means on Friday evening, August 24.

The Detroit M. E. conference meets in Detroit September 12. Albert Todd's new house is beginning to look like a local habitation.

John Pond & Bro. of Pontiac have cut prices nearly in two on many goods and tell you the particulars in their new ad this week.

Remember that next Wednesday, August 29, no excursion but our goods by the Darius Cole to Pt. Huron. This is official and can be relied upon.

This is the live reading... DETROIT, MINN. An Interesting Letter from Miss Lala DeWitt.

There is not a tree in full leaf yet and just my eyes look green. Most of the trees are oak and birch, some elms and very few maples.

There are four hotels, several public houses and six churches, including Catholic and Norwegian. Yesterday we had the first apparition, indeed, of a rainbow.
