

CLAWSON COLLIER. There is a quietness in business that is expected at this time of the year. Miss Kittie Lawson is enjoying her... Mrs. Walker and two children of Ontario, relatives of Eli Phillips, have been visiting him, and they also visited his brother George Fitts and had an enjoyable visit.

There is something wanting forthwith and a heavy fall of it. The damage to corn is enough to make the crop short as far as winter use is concerned. Mrs. Cator is home from New York and finds her health a little improved. Mr. James Way of Troy has for his guests Mr. McMill and wife. Their presence is happiness to him.

H. J. Bowers is back from the great exhibition at Cincinnati with his mind fully stocked with information important to him. In speaking of the President's message, Bowers says no magistrate has ever made such an able speech for 40 years back. Mrs. Travis and wife have changed their quarters from H. H. Bailey's to C. G. Gibbs in Troy.

Mrs. Fred is at H. H. Bailey's in a dangerous condition of health. Our visit is a quiet place of retreat for Dr. Truitts, so it seems from the presence of Mr. Young and Master Reed and little sister Newman's. Mrs. R. Evans and daughter Ella at Law. Mrs. M. Evans and two children at J. Lawson's. Mrs. Dean and daughter at J. Lawson's. Mrs. M. Martha Sealbary at J. Lawson's.

Miss Grace Kerehast is seen among us once more. Miss Nellie Bostel on her return home from Massachusetts the 10th of this month.

Jim Casey is having a well for John Davidson. He bored 131 feet without success and is now boring a new well. W. H. Colner renewed business last Monday. He did not get the rest he expected, which somewhat spoils his chances in the recruit of his health during his vacation. Mrs. Sarah Carter of Birmingham takes up her stay here and goes to Warren to visit her sister.

Merritt Chase is hickering. Electioneering and plowing for what have begun. A slight fog has visited some people hereabouts. Flett Gibbs' theory is that the weeds will protect the corn. If such is the case his corn is well protected.

COUNTY LINE CLIPPINGS. Wm. H. H. H. made a flying visit to St. Joseph last week. Mrs. Fred Cartwright visited friends at Algonac last week. Frank Heilich has bought the house and lot near the depot at Warren from A. Vandross. Mrs. M. Pallister still continues low. Mrs. May Barr and daughter Clara are visiting relatives at Gaius. Wm. Pallister bought over 200 sheep near north.

Neighbors beginning to haul water. Mrs. Hiram Bailey visited friends up in Sanilac Co. last week. We see our old friend John Ames is going to have an auction the 25th. Geo. Geddes and wife visited friends in Troy this week. John Smith has moved into the house belonging to Mrs. Fred Banks. A skinner went 211 feet and no water yet. BIG HEAVY BLIZZARDS. Nearly one thousand people attending the Republican meeting and pole raising here last Saturday. The Franklin band was present and discoursed sweet music, and with their new costumes, and by their gentleness appear the members of the band made a favorable impression upon the people of this place and we say "come again."
