spoon and a tea-spoon, could tell ger from a tea-cup, a tea-kettle tin-pan; beyond was an unknown and I knew little about it. Well, a work and I have continued helpr 'biddy'.—I can't make a bed worth mit, but I can empty the alops, pare potatoes tolerably well, shell the mes in bean season, pare and core the sles, sweep the carpet, fix the lamps, ke the fires, set the table after a houn, watch the milk from boiling r, but occasionally it will slop over way when I look out the window.
