The Century Magazine in 1880-Joseph Jefferson's Autobiography—Novels by Frank B. Rowland, Vivia Grey, and others—A Capital Programme.

During 1890 The Century Magazine (whose recent papers have included the famous "War Papers," the Lincoln History and George Kennan's series on "Oceania and the Kaituma System") will publish the long looked for Autobiography of Joseph Jefferson, whose "Hip Van Winkle" has made his name a household word.

Prof. George P. Fisher of Yale University is writing a series on "The Nature and Method of the New Volume," which will attract every literary student. Bishop Potter of New York will be one of several prominent writers who are to contribute to the "Present-Day Papers" on living topics and there will be important discoveries made with the great Lick Telescope at San Francisco (the largest telescope in the world), and the latest expedition relating to prehistoric man will form one of the most delightful serials The Century has ever printed.

Every booker, postmaster and subscription agent takes subscriptions. The Century (14 years), or remittance may be made direct to the publishers, The Century Co., New York.
