

Table with 2 columns: Train Name (e.g., Morning Express, Grand Rapids Express) and Time.

HOME NOTES. Early to bed and early to rise. Mind your business and tell no lies. Don't get drunk and spoil your eyes.

On Wednesday, December 6, Martin Blinn will sell for F. Clark on the premises, 2 miles east and 1 1/2 miles north of Royal Oak, at 10 o'clock a. m. 80 horses and colts, 5 cows, 4 calves, brood sows and pigs, 7 shoats, harnesses, wagons, buggy, farming books, hay, oats, corn, straw, household furniture, and a hundred and one other things.

It is a mistake for farmers to be led in to the notion that the business men in town are their enemies. As a matter of fact, the average merchant finds it pretty tight squeezing to get along, pay his bills and pay his help.

Southfield Edition. Mrs. Sturman has been visiting in Detroit. Mrs. Maudie Gray is in Lansing. Mrs. Shirley of Detroit is the guest of C. S. Sturman.

J. W. PARENT of Southfield Center IS OFFERING: 18 lb granulated sugar $1.00, 10 lb extra C sugar 1.00, 5 gallons water white kerosene oil .50, etc.

WE OFFER THIS WEEK. The best assortment of Ladies' and Children's 45 cent Mitts ever seen. The best assortment of Men's, Ladies' and Children's Underwear at 50c.

F. BLAKESLEE, Mich. The new edition law, it is proposed, does not specify that all tickets shall be printed by orders through secretary of state.

Mr. Andrew Nichols and George Heams, who are charged with taking a summer tour on Ben Sturges' cash, all of the Big Beaver, had a three times and an examination last Tuesday.

A Partridge, administrator of the estate of Samuel Roberts, deceased, will sell at auction on the premises in the township of Greenock, Wayne county, just east of the middle toll gate on the Detroit and Birmingham plank road.

Gifted naturally with great vocal powers, a future was open to her that was indeed bright. Some three months ago Mrs. Smith was here on a musical tour.

O MORNING LAND. Some day we say, and turn our eyes toward the fair hills of Paradise. Some day we say, and we will see the red Shall blossom, flower-like, in each breast.

An extra line of Boots and Shoes. J.W. Parent, Southfield

THE FRANKLIN BAND. The Franklin band came at National hall not long ago with a success and met the boys a local round sum for their trouble.

On Thursday, December 5, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m., the old Hagerman household at Bloomfield Center will be sold.

THE FUNERAL. The funeral occurred Monday afternoon from the family residence at Oak Grove cemetery, the remains being preceded by many of the former Sunday school scholars of the deceased, and followed by some twenty five carriages containing relatives and friends.

CATARRH. PRICE 50 CENTS. For sale by Whitehead & Mitchell.

CROCKERY!

We have received a new line of Dishes at $4, $4 25 and $4 50 for Tea Sets of Fifty-six Pieces.

Dinner Sets, 101 Pieces, from $8.50 to $13. We have an elegant new line of Pitchers, Plates, Bowls, etc., to sell singly or by the dozen.

YELLOW AND ROCKINGHAM WARE.

The good old-fashioned kind that we all like to use. Come and see an EARTHEN TEA POT, a regular little dandy, for only 20 cents.

A Nice Assortment of Fine China and Glassware. HANGING LAMPS.

Take a day off and look over our Crockery Annex.

"PHURNICEURE." We have a nice line of Bedsteads, Chairs, Mattresses, Woven wire and Spiral Bed Springs, Extension Tables, Couches, Clothes Bars and everything in the furniture line.

Whitehead & Mitchell.

Mr. Horace Lee and daughter are entirely free from any trace of diphtheria, which created a great deal of excitement on their arrival from Eastlake.

The friends of Geo. Wright and wife gathered in upon them not long ago, on the evening of their fifth anniversary wedding day, and presented them with gifts expressive of their affection and respect.

Henry Shaler is having a vacation and rest, caused by an iron rail falling on his hand, badly smashing one of his fingers.

Constable Beattie has added two more scalp to his belt, or in a milder way, two more laurels to his wreath.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Patterson and daughter Florence, of Detroit, passed several days with the family of Dr. C. M. Raynolds last week.

A justice of the peace bringing two miles from Caro, heard a case a short time ago, and after the evidence was all in and the pleas made he charged the jury in the following candid manner:

A school girl being told to parse the sentence "He kissed me," objected respectfully, because opposed, to speaking of private affairs in public.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Patterson and daughter Florence, of Detroit, passed several days with the family of Dr. C. M. Raynolds last week.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Max O'Reil, a Frenchman who visited this country and wrote that spy book "Jonathan and his Continent," was amazed by nothing more than by the newspapers of the land.

Southfield Edition. Mrs. Sturman has been visiting in Detroit. Mrs. Maudie Gray is in Lansing.

At a wedding at Mrs. Burt's to day, Mrs. Maudie Gray was the bride.

Mark Hall has finished an addition to his house.

Mrs. Harvey M. Perkins is under Dr. C. H. Myers' care with a bad hand, the result of old polio.

Mrs. Collins McBride is under the doctor's care.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.

Mrs. Sully's family has material on the ground for a new barn.