THE ECCENTRIC, Birmingham, Mich.

FRANKLIN FLETCHER.

"Prepare the way of the Lord and make his paths straight."

The angelical work of St. Francis is still going on with good success. The lady Evangelist says she never found dwelling in caves as they did in the days of the Saviour, until she came to Franklin, Texas. She found there, she did not like little devils, she would rather face a howling devil any time— that would roar, pitch and howl and paw the dirt ten feet in the air. She did not have long to wait before she began to paw and snort around, some running up and down the street, bellowing and snorting; no one was frightened except a few weak kneed cowboys, who were afraid to get near the paw dirt in their eyes. The Evangelist is adapted to teach all kinds of garrulous to fit everybody and you can get a full set of the Franklin church. She says she does not know how many have been built for years, give everybody their tails, telling them to take home; some think they have a very long tail to carry, but nevertheless carry them; some are removed and rubbish cleared away, stumps and stones got out of the way, and even the sod turned over by the gospel plow. So says the Evangelist. But the Franklin tale is a good one, and she thinks they thought the drag— that little tie like together, but it is doing good— like Saul of Tarsus some are going about persecuting the converts.

Miss Lett will arrange this, says the Lord."

Plain gospel truth tells even among devils. The dumb were made to speak. The blind to see; devils were cast out, and the mad were cured. Even so may it be in Franklin.

Let's see your Tongue. In this United States there is one physician to be every 500 people. It is necessary to be a little crowded to the new doctors in this country, and we would suggest a good opening young physician in Gilead, where there is no physician, now get your diploma from the Gilead Medical College, although we know some doctor who we think ought to go there— Burdette in Brooklyn, Gilead.
