HOME NOTES.

Christmas will make us one day late next week. Mrs. Hanford Spear of Grand Rapids is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gorham.

Jefferson Aldrich of Big Beaver, a man widely known locally, died suddenly of heart disease on Friday morning last.

Wm. Hollivar, the young man so successfully captured by Constable Beatie, and charged with having stolen Charlie St. Y's clothing, got six months at folsa last week.

What shall I do for a Christmas tree? It is a question that can be solved at Whitehead Mitchell's.

The ladies' library society have recently received several new books from outside the village.

The Watkins firm is to have a telephone. The line is in course of construction.

Miss Emma Young returned last week from Kansas, where she has been visiting nearly a year for her health.

Our old friend Clark Harris has been quite ill for some time and on Saturday last he had an extra bad turn.

Mrs. S. J. Wilson's mother, at Royal Oak, while getting out a baggy and the M. E. church last Sunday, slipped and fell, dislocating her left hip joint.

It seems as if the waterworks question were slumbering. "But it ain't." The village board are quietly sitting around the table.

A good gold ring will make a present and will last a life time. You will find that L. B. Peabody & Son's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McDowell of Royal Oak came up to the furniture room of Whitehead & Mitchell last Monday.
