Earnest Quietuis.

Our local correspondent at Blue nob sends the following: After a set fight our city secured the Bellgius peranes convention, called together by a determination on put-thicking the secure of the and shoulders above the rest. We and shoulders above the rest. We and shoulders above the rest. We are against this enlightened community is a fruitiest thing for the buckers. The convention met in the court-house and was called to order by Brother Sawyer, presiding elder of high standing, and until lattly was reliable to the second of the standing and until lattly was rest. The convention met in the same than the second of the standing and until lattly was more than the tenderness with which he referred to the fact that there is no longer any money to be made in the manufacture of whisky, wet many an eye that has been dry doing the entire example to the second of t fact, had begun to believe that it is not right.

Leanyer Clopclop, at one time in five for Buckhorn county, said that ting the ballots out of the boxes was right enough, but that he did not leve in carrying the boxes away, because aw often private property, one used by housewives as reporting for needless and thread, hunks of sewax, bits of mutton suct (used for sanight the children), bright quit sees and hundreds of other small teles. These housewires have became much attached to their boxes, by leading them through excess of triotism; and to destroy them is not hit.

Adloned Ellerton B. Hickiehroth said when A mily foot became a ballotit is had to take its chances. His to had lost a valuable box, but, willto serve her party, had not kicked, was a miss a milkie serve her party, had not kicked, must all make secrifices. The ladies lod bless 'em-must make sacrificated see duty calls use must lay aside self-interest as we would a garment thas been used long enough, and pholdly to the front. I. Hornsweggle raid that, being L. Hornsweggle raid that, being L. Hornsweggle raid that, being go of elections. So far as he was cerused, there was no necessity for laing ballot-boxes. Before the is closed no man could touch his box, after closing he was willing to surfer the box to any man who might sand it. llonel Ellerton B. Hicklebroth said
