

FINE JOB PRINTING A SPECIALTY. VOL XII NO 11

DETROIT, G'D HAVEN & MILWAUKEE RAILWAY. CENTRAL STANDARD TIME.

REMEDY FOR CATARRH. PRICE 50 CENTS. IT IS THE EASIEST TO USE.

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE. Senator Thomas W. Palmer's Excellent Young, Imported Government Improved Percheron Stallions.

WATKINS STOCK FARM. one half mile west of Birmingham, every THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

FRIDAY during the months of April, May and June. Don't fail to see this horse before being made.

Wants Lot. Found. M. G. JONES, Agent for the German-American Mutual Life Insurance Co.

NOTE: If you want a horse, high or low, Light or Heavy, see M. G. Jones, 101 North Main St., agent of the above.

POE BENT: A nice new large horse carriage with a very large front seat and comfortable seats.

POE SALE: A very fine horse, high or low, Light or Heavy, see M. G. Jones, 101 North Main St.

POE SALE: A very fine horse, high or low, Light or Heavy, see M. G. Jones, 101 North Main St.

POE SALE: A very fine horse, high or low, Light or Heavy, see M. G. Jones, 101 North Main St.

POE SALE: A very fine horse, high or low, Light or Heavy, see M. G. Jones, 101 North Main St.

Mrs. A. G. Lewis, -OR DETROIT- Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music.

THE ARLINGTON HOTEL. A COMPLETE HOME-HOTEL. MEALS A SPECIALTY. 25c. Board and Room, per day, $1 25 and $1 50.

THE PHENIX OF HARTFORD. Always issues your Buildings in a Great Company! The Old PHENIX OF HARTFORD.

NOW WE'VE GOT 'EM!

Figured Challies at 6c and 8c. Lawn Tennis Flannels 12 1/2c and 15c. Shirting Gingham 8c and 10c. Broadhead Dress Fabrics 20c and 25c.

CURTAIN POLES AND FIXTURES. Five-foot Curtain Poles all complete, 35c, 40c, 50c and 75c. We have Curtain Holland at 12 1/2c; Minnetto at 20c; Shades complete with spring roller, 50c.

WALL PAPER. Don't forget we have the only complete line of Wall Paper in town. Greys, 6c; White, 8c and 10c; Gills, 10c and 12 1/2c; Ingrains, 15c and 20c.

WE would esteem it a favor to have you call and look our stock over. Everything warranted as represented.

F. BLAKESLEE, Birmingham, Mich.

SHOES!

RELIABLE FOOT WEAR. WEAR RESISTERS. J. B. LEWIS. V. NIXON & CO. OF DETROIT.

WE Would also ask you to examine our Ladies' $2 goat shoes manufactured by J. B. Lewis. The goods have no nails, tacks, pegs or wires and you get the same ease and comfort you would with a hand-sewed shoe that would cost you twice the money.

Our $3 00 Line of Men's Shoes is the most popular line in the market, and has been thoroughly tested and pronounced a success by all who have worn them.

Satisfactory Wear. We have a full line of men's shoes at $2 00 and $2 50 per pair, with no tacks, nails, pegs or wires to hurt your feet.

OUR MEN'S DONGOLA, a low-priced, light, soft shoe of which we have sold a great many this season, is the best $2 50 shoe in the market.

THE LADIES' FAVORITE is our bright Dongola hand-sewed shoe made on perfect-fitting New York lasts. This shoe wears better than any French Kid shoe in the market. Price $1 00 to $1 50 per pair.

HOME NOTES. PERPETUAL NOTICE. Don't fail to read H. E. Kenny & Co's new and startling advertisement.

Michigan's state board of arbitration is to have power to subpoena witnesses and compel the production of books, the same as a court of record. The purpose is apparently to force a disclosure of the wages paid and the profits of a business in case of labor disputes.

The Misses Richmond of Detroit passed last Sunday at the home of Mrs. G. C. Gilman Troy, and of course enjoyed a day of country air superbly.

Mr. J. B. Sherman now runs his steamer "Dell" around Orchard Lake, such to the delight of the many excursionists who visit that popular resort.

The reception tendered the Rev. J. A. Sherrard on the evening of his departure for Big Rapids was a success in every particular.

Entrusted from the premises of Ed Hamilton in Royal Oak township, one 2 year old sorrel filly, chestnut mane and tail and white star in forehead.

Mr. Joseph Mead celebrated his birthday which was only one day apart, Mr. Mead being 73 years old that day.

Mr. J. Bayley of Detroit, son of Volney P. Bayley, passed his fourth with his uncle Adams in Troy, and highly entertained a large crowd of friends with a fine display of fire.

Mr. Campbell of Royal Oak came up with a windmill. The Ladies' Country association are in the market and will buy one right away quick.

Our old friend J. B. Cooper, now of Brighton, Conn., was home for the 4th and enjoyed himself to his fullest capacity.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

Don't fail to read H. E. Kenny & Co's new and startling advertisement. This firm is alive and full of business ambition. Nothing is too great for Hugh to undertake, and he would never so good but what he could do.

At the time of the train running from Otter Lake to Franklin I did not go there to celebrate today, but bought two firecrackers for a cent, shot one this morning and to-night, and saved the other for the 4th of July.

Mr. J. B. Sherman now runs his steamer "Dell" around Orchard Lake, such to the delight of the many excursionists who visit that popular resort.

The reception tendered the Rev. J. A. Sherrard on the evening of his departure for Big Rapids was a success in every particular.

Entrusted from the premises of Ed Hamilton in Royal Oak township, one 2 year old sorrel filly, chestnut mane and tail and white star in forehead.

Mr. Joseph Mead celebrated his birthday which was only one day apart, Mr. Mead being 73 years old that day.

Mr. J. Bayley of Detroit, son of Volney P. Bayley, passed his fourth with his uncle Adams in Troy, and highly entertained a large crowd of friends with a fine display of fire.

Mr. Campbell of Royal Oak came up with a windmill. The Ladies' Country association are in the market and will buy one right away quick.

Our old friend J. B. Cooper, now of Brighton, Conn., was home for the 4th and enjoyed himself to his fullest capacity.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

Don't fail to read H. E. Kenny & Co's new and startling advertisement. This firm is alive and full of business ambition. Nothing is too great for Hugh to undertake, and he would never so good but what he could do.

At the time of the train running from Otter Lake to Franklin I did not go there to celebrate today, but bought two firecrackers for a cent, shot one this morning and to-night, and saved the other for the 4th of July.

Mr. J. B. Sherman now runs his steamer "Dell" around Orchard Lake, such to the delight of the many excursionists who visit that popular resort.

The reception tendered the Rev. J. A. Sherrard on the evening of his departure for Big Rapids was a success in every particular.

Entrusted from the premises of Ed Hamilton in Royal Oak township, one 2 year old sorrel filly, chestnut mane and tail and white star in forehead.

Mr. Joseph Mead celebrated his birthday which was only one day apart, Mr. Mead being 73 years old that day.

Mr. J. Bayley of Detroit, son of Volney P. Bayley, passed his fourth with his uncle Adams in Troy, and highly entertained a large crowd of friends with a fine display of fire.

Mr. Campbell of Royal Oak came up with a windmill. The Ladies' Country association are in the market and will buy one right away quick.

Our old friend J. B. Cooper, now of Brighton, Conn., was home for the 4th and enjoyed himself to his fullest capacity.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

Don't fail to read H. E. Kenny & Co's new and startling advertisement. This firm is alive and full of business ambition. Nothing is too great for Hugh to undertake, and he would never so good but what he could do.

At the time of the train running from Otter Lake to Franklin I did not go there to celebrate today, but bought two firecrackers for a cent, shot one this morning and to-night, and saved the other for the 4th of July.

Mr. J. B. Sherman now runs his steamer "Dell" around Orchard Lake, such to the delight of the many excursionists who visit that popular resort.

The reception tendered the Rev. J. A. Sherrard on the evening of his departure for Big Rapids was a success in every particular.

Entrusted from the premises of Ed Hamilton in Royal Oak township, one 2 year old sorrel filly, chestnut mane and tail and white star in forehead.

Mr. Joseph Mead celebrated his birthday which was only one day apart, Mr. Mead being 73 years old that day.

Mr. J. Bayley of Detroit, son of Volney P. Bayley, passed his fourth with his uncle Adams in Troy, and highly entertained a large crowd of friends with a fine display of fire.

Mr. Campbell of Royal Oak came up with a windmill. The Ladies' Country association are in the market and will buy one right away quick.

Our old friend J. B. Cooper, now of Brighton, Conn., was home for the 4th and enjoyed himself to his fullest capacity.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

Mr. James E. Quick had the architect's plans for our new depot here last week, and it proved perfectly satisfactory to all who had the pleasure of seeing it.

George Raymond and Johnnie Campbell, our promising 9-year olds, celebrated their 4th birthday.

John Foss and R. C. Proprietors of the Beehive, Pontiac, Mich., have a new announcement in this issue, and invite the ladies of this vicinity to call and inspect their immense stock of goods and see that which we all know is a bargain.

ADVERTISING MEDICIN IN OAKLAND CO.

Wanted the Chairman of the Pension Bureau, but Would Take a Clerkship. It is peculiarly refreshing in these feverish days of office-seeking, says a Washington letter to the New York Tribune, to meet an applicant of rare and modest tastes...

IN MEMORIAM. Mrs. Ezra R. King died at Pontiac, Mich., Tuesday, June 25, 1899. Gone unto thy rest, sweet sister, Free from every care and pain...

Mr. Martin Brown of Marine City is here with his party. Most of the young folks appear the 4th at Mt. Clemens. Mr. Matthew McBride has been quite ill.

It was afterward ascertained that this modest office-seeker would "considerable rest" in his native town, living in a fine house of twelve or thirteen rooms, and possessing three or four others, for one of which he was recently in application for a pension...

SOUTHFIELD SEPTENNIAL. Cyrus Wright of Detroit Sundayed in this place. C. Murphy and family have returned from the West. Miss Ella Adams has been visiting friends in Detroit.

ORDER OF THE RED CROSS. A meeting of the members of the Order of the Red Cross was held in Library hall on Tuesday evening of last week.

There are many lovers of nature. The numerous admirers of Charles Dickens will be interested to know that the novelist's favorite Kentish home at Gadshill Place in the Kentish town is again offered for sale, says the Pall Mall Gazette, the present owner and occupant Major F. Buxton, being desirous of leaving the place to his son.

There are many lovers of nature. The numerous admirers of Charles Dickens will be interested to know that the novelist's favorite Kentish home at Gadshill Place in the Kentish town is again offered for sale, says the Pall Mall Gazette, the present owner and occupant Major F. Buxton, being desirous of leaving the place to his son.

There are many lovers of nature. The numerous admirers of Charles Dickens will be interested to know that the novelist's favorite Kentish home at Gadshill Place in the Kentish town is again offered for sale, says the Pall Mall Gazette, the present owner and occupant Major F. Buxton, being desirous of leaving the place to his son.

There are many lovers of nature. The numerous admirers of Charles Dickens will be interested to know that the novelist's favorite Kentish home at Gadshill Place in the Kentish town is again offered for sale, says the Pall Mall Gazette, the present owner and occupant Major F. Buxton, being desirous of leaving the place to his son.

There are many lovers of nature. The numerous admirers of Charles Dickens will be interested to know that the novelist's favorite Kentish home at Gadshill Place in the Kentish town is again offered for sale, says the Pall Mall Gazette, the present owner and occupant Major F. Buxton, being desirous of leaving the place to his son.