

81 PER YEAR... VOL 13 NO 25

Table with train schedules: DETROIT, HAYEN & MILWAUKEE RAILWAY. Includes Morning Express, Noon Express, Night Express, and Chicago Express.

WATKINS STOCK FARM. One half mile west of Birmingham.

Attain Age. Five, six, active three year old... Price Per Head. Beautiful three year old...

Duke of Devon. The great M. Lambert... Swine. Improved early Yorkshire, Victoria...

Poultry. Rose comb brown Leghorns... G. A. WATKINS, Motlow Building, Detroit, Mich.

L. F. BALDCKO, V. S. V. D. Graduate of Veterinary College at Iowa.

L. O. TOWBRIDGE, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Office in the Commercial Building, Birmingham.

JAS. H. HATHAWAY, FARM ACCOUNTANT. Will advise to farm sales very reasonably.

MISS JENNIE PECK, TEACHER OF PIANO. Residence 1/2 mile from depot, Birmingham.

Birmingham Presbyterian Church. Sabbath services at 10:30 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m.

Birmingham Baptist Church. Sabbath services at 10:30 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m.

Methodist Episcopal Church. REV. E. F. FICKER, Pastor.

Troy and Southside U. P. Churches. REV. A. L. OBER, PASTOR.

Ladies' Library. Corner of Merrill and... Books from 10c to $5.00.

Wants. Lost. Found, etc. Franklin Square, New York City.

THE POLICE GAZETTE. Published weekly for the police... Price 10c per copy.

ANYONE who wants what he gets of Mrs. L. Sawyer's Ladies' Balm... Price 25c per tin.

Change of third car for the D. C. H. & M. R. Y. train. A great big rain came down on last Saturday night and Sunday.

Regular communication of Birmingham Chapter No. 93 R. A. M. on Monday evening, October 27. A full attendance required.

F. P. Beckham has invented a most wonderful sparrow trap and will have it patented soon. Don't buy a sparrow catcher until you see Frank's latest one.

Mr. C. Bart Boughner, Democrat nominee for state senator, was in our village last Saturday on business.

Miss Bland Alexander is preparing a course of study in the Art Museum of Detroit. Modeling and wood carving are the principal subjects of study.

Frank W. German is a quiet sort of a little granger but a big success for a farmer and phenomenon for sheep raising.

That turkey stuffed down in Royal Oak is developing astounding revelations in its early life. Who'll be the next victim is now the cry.

Oliver Moore, a five-year-old son of O. B. Moore on the Beckman farm, died recently after a weak week of pain and suffering.

THE MICHIGAN CONGRESS. The Michigan congress has opened its session at Lansing, Mich., on Monday.

George Barney, the cotton-tail with the Hagan Indian show who exhibited here last summer, was arrested at Flint last month charged with assaulting a child.

A report is current on our streets that A. Bayler has rented a $15 a month house in Pontiac in view of his being elected coroner on the Republican ticket.

Deaf, at his home Sunday afternoon, Andrew C. W. of the Presbyterian church Tuesday last conducted by Rev. Mr. Marsh of that church and was largely attended.

The prospect of a steam saw mill being located in our village at or near the D. & M. depot, Mr. Stringer, who has been planning immediate purchase of square timber land at Buckhorn Corners to the city, is the enterprise which will establish the mill.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

George Barney, the cotton-tail with the Hagan Indian show who exhibited here last summer, was arrested at Flint last month charged with assaulting a child.

A report is current on our streets that A. Bayler has rented a $15 a month house in Pontiac in view of his being elected coroner on the Republican ticket.

Deaf, at his home Sunday afternoon, Andrew C. W. of the Presbyterian church Tuesday last conducted by Rev. Mr. Marsh of that church and was largely attended.

The prospect of a steam saw mill being located in our village at or near the D. & M. depot, Mr. Stringer, who has been planning immediate purchase of square timber land at Buckhorn Corners to the city, is the enterprise which will establish the mill.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

George Barney, the cotton-tail with the Hagan Indian show who exhibited here last summer, was arrested at Flint last month charged with assaulting a child.

A report is current on our streets that A. Bayler has rented a $15 a month house in Pontiac in view of his being elected coroner on the Republican ticket.

Deaf, at his home Sunday afternoon, Andrew C. W. of the Presbyterian church Tuesday last conducted by Rev. Mr. Marsh of that church and was largely attended.

The prospect of a steam saw mill being located in our village at or near the D. & M. depot, Mr. Stringer, who has been planning immediate purchase of square timber land at Buckhorn Corners to the city, is the enterprise which will establish the mill.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Al White, of Southfield, is a thoroughly happy man. The day he last worked on his farm, he sold a cow for $100.

Items for this department are carefully reviewed by the editors and such items as are deemed worthy of publication are published in this department.

Several pupils of the geometry class are having head aches and sleepless nights over the problem of trisecting an arc.

At the regular monthly meeting of the school board Principal Cook presented his first monthly report for the month ending September 26, from which we are reported on at our next meeting.

The board decided to publish a new book to be prepared by the board with the aid of Principal Cook. Several changes in the courses of study were recommended by him.

The M. E. church choir consisting of the following singers, Miss Frankie Gibbs and Miss Minnie Gilbert, soprano; Mrs. Minnie White, alto; Messrs J. H. Lamb and A. A. Gibbs, tenor; and Mr. C. S. Travis, bass, surprised the Rev. J. A. Rowe and wife at their home last Friday evening by giving them a musical treat.

Our energetic pathmaker has been doing some necessary road work lately. Assistant state highway engineer, Mr. S. L. Hobbs, returned home Friday last.

Mr. James Swain (see Miss Jennie Terry) arrived from her home in Idaho last week and has had a very interesting and wholly unexpected experience during the past week.

Now all the fairies in the past we will try to fill our little space in your magazine for some days, but we are not so much as to say that we are not one single look.

The best salve in the world for cuts, burns, sores, ulcers, skin rheum, fever, sore throat, toothache, hemorrhoids, and all other ailments.

Mrs. John Davis is under the care of Dr. Charles Randall, vice president.

Mr. Will McCarroll and wife of West Bloomfield visited Mr. A. Todd recently.

Mr. E. H. Phillips and family have returned from a short visit to Detroit.

Another home baked loaf. It is to be made a sidewalk for the gravel for the convenience of certain ladies.

What a time we'll have when John doubles up. It is too bad Maggie you disappointed them when you came back single.

Never mind if Ed's house is small a better half can get into it. It might do the Detroit woman to get divorce but why the other woman, she could have had the same.

Rev. James Hall has moved back to his place in Troy. Instead of reumatism, as Clark has at present of the nerves. She is very sick at present writing.

When Rev. Rowe and family returned from a two weeks' visit to Canada they were met at their residence by a large company of friends. As they were entering their home they were greeted by the band playing "Home, Sweet Home."

Mr. E. G. Clark has returned from a four weeks' visit at Saginaw. Miss Maude-Bell visited with Mr. E. A. Ferrie's people in Detroit one day recently.