Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c. a bottle.

The wealthiest one is the one who is most economical: the poorest the one who is most miserly.

Washing powders are strong alkalies; and ruin clothes. The purest soap obtainable is the best and cheapest. Dobbins' Electric Soap is honest soap—good for the hands and to be the purest of all. Try it right away.

One ounce at curls when she has no more hair; one slanders apples when one has no more teeth.

Female Weakness Positive Cure.

To The Editor:

Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the thousand and one ills which arise from deranged female organs; that I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any lady who will send their Express and P. O. address.

Yours Respectfully,
DR. J. B. MARCHISI, 183 Genesee St., Utica, N. Y.

In condemning the vanity of women, men complain of the fire that they themselves have kindled.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The error of certain women is to imagine that to acquire distinction they must imitate the manners of men.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

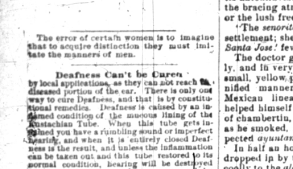
The knowledge of the charms one possesses prompts one to utilize them. I cannot see why women are so desirous of imitating men.



Help yourself

If you're a suffering woman, with the medicine that's been prepared especially to help you—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will do it where others fail. For all the diseases peculiar to the sex—dragging-down pains, displacements, and other weaknesses, it's a positive remedy. It means a new life, and a longer one, for every delicate woman. In every case for which it's recommended, it gives satisfaction. It's guaranteed to do so, or the money is refunded.

It improves digestion, invigorates the system, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, produces refreshing sleep, dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. It is a legitimate medicine—not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and cause distress. As peculiar in its marvelous, remedial results as in its composition. Therefore, don't let any put off with some worthless compound easily, but dishonestly, recommended to be "just as good."
