

31 PER YEAR. VOL 18 N. 1. BIRMINGHAM

Table with 2 columns: Route and Fare. Includes Detroit, Grand Rapids, and other local routes.

Special Hosiery Sale

To Farmers and Horsemen. SATURDAY!

Special offer on 50 dozen Ladies' Hose at 25c per pair, regular price has been 35, 40 and 50c.

Remember we are headquarters for the best selected stock of Dry Goods, Wall Paper, Shades and Fixtures in Birmingham.

Always the Cheapest at F. BLAKESLEE'S, BIRMINGHAM, MICH.

WATKINS STOCK FARM. One half mile west of Birmingham. Attention! Fine grass and other good crops.

MISS JENNIE PECK, TEACHER OF PIANO. Resides on Maple avenue, near depot, Birmingham.

L. O. TROWBRIDGE, Auctioneer. Will give instructions in real estate.

FOR SALE - A large lot of red raspberry canes. Also other fruit plants.

FOR SALE - A large lot of red raspberry canes. Also other fruit plants.

Special Job in Ribbons! We still have a few all Silk, Satin Edge Ribbons on hand from last Saturday's sale.

WHEN IN NEED OF Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes. We can save you money.

SPRING STOCK! We have a Large Line of Embroideries from 10 to 15 per cent. less than list.

BOOTS and SHOES! We can give you better value for your money in this line of goods than ever.

HOME NOTES.

Queen City of the plains about the 1st of May. The best wishes of her many friends for her future welfare accompany her.

James Grinley is painting Eugene Brooks' residence with those beautiful new colors of Boyd's blue and white.

What makes Whitehead so absent minded and what it that attracts his attention to the large show windows in F. B. Kaleski's store?

Chas. Stenton arranged for burglary at Northville last ago and tried in Detroit, but had more than settled up for that charge before he was arrested.

Frank Goodman, an old Birmingham boy, but now of Cadillac, Mich., was in town last week visiting old friends.

Rev. W. Marsh, the Presbyterian pastor, has rented Mrs. Drake's home on Maple avenue and will occupy it about the 15th of July with his family.

Property "do" change hands in Birmingham. The house occupied by Miss Chas. J. Pate was bought lately by Martin D. Masters, who got a quit claim deed from all the heirs.

Mrs. C. Smith, formerly of Troy, now of Akron, Ohio, was visiting her old friends James Robbins and family last week. She intends going back to the will preach the sermon, Rev. D. M. Cooper of Detroit will charge the pastor. Rev. Howard Duffield D. D., of Detroit, will charge the people.

The retirement of the last installment of Michigan state debt on the first day of May will put this state in a financial position second to none in the Union.

Many Lives, Histories, or Biographies of the late Jefferson Davis, purporting to present the opinions of the people.

There has not been a case of diphtheria in the village as yet and we hope there will not be.

When "Fair Play" was "his" letter in the weekly sign at the "hooked up" condition, and finally resolved them, and there, at once and forever, to obey the ranks of literature and the way to the far west.

Frank Goodman, an old Birmingham boy, but now of Cadillac, Mich., was in town last week visiting old friends.

James J. Davenport has the work up for a nice new home on the recently purchased property on Fremont street.

The soldiers' monument which has stood at the intersection of Maple avenue and Saginaw street for over 20 years, has been removed to the Greenway cemetery the fore part of this week by D. M. Doty the marble dealer of Southfield.

Rev. W. Marsh, the Presbyterian pastor, has rented Mrs. Drake's home on Maple avenue and will occupy it about the 15th of July with his family.

What makes Whitehead so absent minded and what it that attracts his attention to the large show windows in F. B. Kaleski's store?

Many Lives, Histories, or Biographies of the late Jefferson Davis, purporting to present the opinions of the people.

There has not been a case of diphtheria in the village as yet and we hope there will not be.

When "Fair Play" was "his" letter in the weekly sign at the "hooked up" condition, and finally resolved them, and there, at once and forever, to obey the ranks of literature and the way to the far west.

Frank Goodman, an old Birmingham boy, but now of Cadillac, Mich., was in town last week visiting old friends.

James J. Davenport has the work up for a nice new home on the recently purchased property on Fremont street.

The soldiers' monument which has stood at the intersection of Maple avenue and Saginaw street for over 20 years, has been removed to the Greenway cemetery the fore part of this week by D. M. Doty the marble dealer of Southfield.

Rev. W. Marsh, the Presbyterian pastor, has rented Mrs. Drake's home on Maple avenue and will occupy it about the 15th of July with his family.

Property "do" change hands in Birmingham. The house occupied by Miss Chas. J. Pate was bought lately by Martin D. Masters, who got a quit claim deed from all the heirs.

Anna Nicholson was born near South Cay, Yorkshire, England, on the 17th day of July, 1803 and died in Birmingham, April 22, 1890.

She was the eldest daughter of Matthew and Elizabeth Pickering, a family of one son and six daughters of whom five are still living.

She was married February 9, 1829, to Robert Nicholson, to whom were born three sons and six daughters. They resided in England until 1850, when taking passage in the Willmore, sailing from Hull after a voyage of six week-landed in America, settling in Detroit, where they remained until 1856.

Sister Nicholson was converted at the age of nine under the labors of Rev. George Nicholson, united with the Methodist church of which she has ever been a consistent member.

Mrs. B. Gillett died April 20th at the age of 72 years on north LeRoy street, residence of her father, the funeral was held at the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon, April 23, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Hattie Blais was born in the town of Penfield, New York, Feb. 21, 1816. She came to Michigan with her parents in 1823. Her father, Calvin Perin, took a farm in the town of Troy, two miles from Birmingham, where he lived and brought up a large family.

All the young ladies who are to take part in the merchants' carnival are requested to meet for drill at Library Hall, Saturday evening, May 3, at 7.30.

The Ladies' Working Society of the M. E. church will hold their meeting for the month of May in the basement of the church on Friday afternoon of this week. All are cordially invited and it is hoped a good number will be filled.

Miss Mollie Ellett is still a little under the weather. John Canilla is putting an addition to his house. Miss Marie Blair is the happy owner of a new story (a Ark) organ.

THE BEEHIVE.

Twenty Years in Business Without Interruption. PONTIAC, Mich., Spring, 1880. TO OUR PATRONS - LADIES AND GENTLEMEN - We thank you one and all for having contributed in any degree to our success.

"The times are now such to our farmers, business men and everybody generally. In fact they are nearly out of joint, and not at all in touch with what we all would like. Everyone knows the times are unquestionably high all over the country."

A careful observer will notice that since the production of cereals, energy, economy and industry, all are guaranteed enough to live on, yet we can assure you at this particular time that no business man hereabouts in our line of trade is making dollar and cents more than he is spending, and many people are asking and enquiring the cause of it.

Meeting of the Reading Club at the M. E. church to-morrow evening. Old friends in this place will be pained to hear of the failure of Miss Mary Harriman, eldest daughter of Rev. C. W. Austin.

Dr. Belle Ice Company are loading. The land business will soon start up. The sick are all getting well. John Southard is working at his buildings.

The board of health made Gerold cover up that pile of filth. Miss Marie Gillett is taking lessons on the violin of Will Leggett.

Charles Gerold will soon open a new store on the corner of Third and Third streets. David Miller is loading two cars of barley of his own raising.

Mrs. E. S. Leggett is visiting in Detroit for a couple of months. BUCKLEY'S ANTICIPAL SALVE. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, etc.