En-Sen, Jones Goes to an Asylum.

Various Happenings About the State.

Good If Uncontrollable.

January 20. The Jackson Patriot has a story of a man named En-Sen, who, by the way, is a brother of the late En-Sen Jones. He had been down town in the forenoon and stopped on the way to take to the jail. He was following the streets in a dazed way, and was taken to an uncontrolled asylum, where he was confined for several days. He was then taken to the asylum, where he was confined for several days. He was then taken to the asylum, where he was confined for several days.

THE HORRORS RESULTING FROM FIRE AND STORM AT TOMSK.

Hundreds of Lives Lost and Assistance Refused.

Another Instance of Cruelty by the Czar's Soldiers.

St. Petersburg, May 15.—Reports received from Tomsk, Siberia, of the Russian soldiers, furnish another instance of the cruelty of the Czar's soldiers. The place was visited by a fire and storm, which destroyed the buildings, which were of wood, and the loss of hundreds of lives. The cause of the fire was a lightning bolt, which struck the town, and the people were consequently roasted alive. The reports are that the soldiers refused to assist in saving lives, and that they abandoned the town to the flames. The reports are that the soldiers refused to assist in saving lives, and that they abandoned the town to the flames.

The FATAL QUICKSAND.

Terrible Death of James Parsons. Woodstock, La., Jan. 20.—James Parsons met a terrible fate on Saturday afternoon in this city. He was walking in the street, and was suddenly struck by a quicksand, which was under his feet. He fell into it, and was unable to get out. He was found by a passer-by, and was taken to the hospital, where he died. The cause of the quicksand was a sinkhole, which had formed in the street.

THE ASHLEY CALAMITY.

Wild Scenes Among the Women. Wild scenes were witnessed on Monday night in the Ashley district. A group of women were gathered together, and were engaged in a quarrel. The women were shouting and screaming, and were using abusive language. The police were called, and they tried to break up the group. The women refused to leave, and the police were forced to use force. The women were taken to the police station, and were held overnight.
